Once upon a time... in a quaint village in Switzerland, the people were milling about their daily routine when an oddity appeared. A travelling merchant was wending his way down the cobblestone street with his small covered wagon, with wooden sides and roof, pulled by a singular horse of good breed and spirit. This itself was not the oddity: for such travelling merchants were a daily fare in those times and climes. However, the singular curiosity was the travelling companion that the merchant had riding the horse. Astride the stallion was a large chimpanzee, wearing, what would seem to be a chauffeur's uniform, gloves and hat and all. As passers-by remarked at the unique sight, pointing, the chimpanzee would remove his hat and nod his head in courtesy.

The man and his companion made their way into the middle of the clean village, to the market square, lined with neat shrubbery and flowers, blossoming brightly in the spring sun; with the snow glistening off the mountain peaks farther above; the birds singing sweetly in their alpine, northern paradise. The wagon slowly came to a stop. The chimpanzee bounded merrily off the horse and prepared the step for his master to descend to the street. After the merchant stepped down, the chimpanzee, with a small brush that he procured from his inside coat pocket, began to brush the dust and air-borne seed-silk off his master, which had accumulated from their travel across the mountain and meadow roads.

A crowd by now was gathering; but the merchant paid them no attention, as both he and the chimp began to remove wares from the wagon. They pulled folding tables from off the roof after they removed the crates that had been tied down on top of the flattened tables. He opened one whole side of the wagon and propped up the side panel with two poles, which then served as an awning. The chimp then opened a folding chair for his master and the man sat down in the shade of the wagon's awning and remaining aloof to the throng of people now before him, produced a book and began to read, and within a moment the chimpanzee brought him a cup of coffee and a biscuit. "Thank you, Tobias", the merchant said, in a manner that revealed that he was quite accustomed to his hairy companion so waiting upon him, without even having to make request. "Have a banana yourself and relax in the shade”, he said, “It’s been quite a trip we’ve made from Italy”. He then went on casually, enjoying his repast and reading, completely ignoring the people around him.

After a few moments, someone in the crowd broke the silence, “From Italy, you say,” he interjected. “What brings you to our humble hamlet, the smallest in our canton?”

The merchant, feigning surprise, looked up and said, “Oh...” and with a moment of silence looked around at all the curious faces, “Yes”, he started, “we have just travelled here to your fine crisp air from the warmer climes of Italy. Before that, we had been at my mission station in Africa. You see, I am not a mere merchant, but a missionary on a sacred journey. All these goods around me that you see were made by my furry friend Tobias here, and a few thousand of his tribe at the mission I run for them. They are good folk and just need a chance to matriculate to the higher society in which we abide. I’ve...—forgive me, allow me to introduce myself—my name is Father Lazare Jacobi of Rome. I’ve brought all this merchandise made by the chimps in the hopes of selling it in Germany and Austria. However, for a few days we travelled through some heavy rain and I decided that since it was such a nice sunny day and the air here so fine, to open up my little wagon and allow the merchandise to air out a little... if that’s all right with you. I won’t clutter up your street for very long, we just require a little time to relax and rest on solid ground, after several days of lumbering along and being tossed to and fro in this wagon over your bumpy roads”.

“You don’t have to hurry along”, someone from the crowd suggested, “you are not in anyone’s way. Stay as long as you like.”

“Yes”. “Indeed”. “That’s right”, others in the crowd added.

“That’s right kind of you”, the merchant replied.

“But, uh... Mr. Jacobi, why do you plan to go all the way to Germany and Austria when there are good people here in Switzerland who may buy your wares, and then you won’t have to travel so far? Swiss gold is just as good as German, is it not?”

“Please, please, call me ‘Lazare’, my friend”, Jacobi replied. “Well, I did not know that you Swiss would be interested in my crude wares. You Swiss are a refined, advanced people, with your watches and clocks and chocolates; I would not insult you with these primitive crafts. I imagined that I would have better success selling them to your more-rustic northern cousins”.

At this point, without any cue, the chimpanzee brought his master another biscuit and then retrieved a small box from the wagon and sat down on a small stool that he brought with the box, opened it, and produced some shoe-black and various pieces of cloth and a brush, and proceeded to shine Jacobi’s shoes.

The people in the crowd marvelled. One exclaimed, “I wish I had one of those monkeys”. Others also chimed in, in agreement. Jacobi smiled, but corrected him, “Well, Toby here is not a monkey, which is an entirely different race; chimpanzees are apes”. A little chagrined at his own ignorance (which was understandable, considering this was a century or more ago, despite the fine education of the Swiss people, this was before modern travel and communication and the information explosion of learning), the man reiterated, “Well, I’d certainly like to have one of those apes to help me with all my chores”. Again, others in the crowd again echoed their agreement.

Jacobi replied, “Oh, I have a few thousand chimpanzees like this, all wonderfully trained. But owning one is like having a child: You must feed it, clothe it, procure a doctor when it is sick, teach it and constantly be correcting it. It is a nice idea, but you don’t really want one. They are too hyper for you laid-back Swiss. Would you not be interested in some of these nice hand-baskets instead?”

“Well”, one of the men in the crowd replied, “you don’t seem too inconvenienced by the beast, he’s done half your work for you and now waits on you hand and foot, without your even needing to give him a command”.

“Well, that may be the case”, Jacobi replied, “but you were not privy to all the years of time, energy, and expense, not to mention patience, in order to properly train him. Look here, a nice handkerchief made with Egyptian cotton, would that not be something that would be of interest and better use to you?”

“But you said that you had several thousand of these chimpanzees, all trained, and that they produce all these wares that you are trucking about and have set before us”, one man continued.

“Well, yes, that is true”, Jacobi replied.

“So, will you then not consider selling to us some of your many monkeys... er, I mean, apes? Surely with as many as you have, you would not miss a few for us Switzers, who would pay you fairly to benefit from all your hard work and expense in training them”.

“That’s right”. “Indeed”. “Ja”, others in the crowd expressed in agreement.

“But if I sell my chimpanzees, who will I then have to make all these wares for me?” Jacobi questioned.

“Well”, someone asked, “why do you even make all those wares to lug them many hundreds of miles over the Italian and Swiss Alps to sell in Germany and Austria?”

“I do so in order to raise the needed funds to better help these poor children of nature to aspire to a higher life, as we enjoy. Is that not their right? Do they not deserve it as much as we? Are we not all God’s children?” Jacobi countered.

“Well, all that speculation and strange philosophy about rights and deservation and all being God’s children I certainly take issue with. Just because God made all does not mean that all are the same and does not mean that all have the same purpose or rights or deserts. But that is not the issue. We have not asked to have a religious or philosophical or political debate. We have simply asked if we could purchase some of your chimpanzees. Now that you have shared your purpose, to help those of the ape tribe, would it not be more cost-effective, and far-less burdensome for you to sell us some of the apes, which will bring you a far-better price than your handkerchiefs and backscratchers... and, uh... whatever those other things are—and you won’t have to lug them all the way to the Tyrol or Bavaria in the hopes to sell them. In fact, once you travel all the way north, there is no guarantee that the Saxons or Ostlers will even buy anything from you. And right here before you is a sure deal”.

“Well”, Jacobi replied, “you make a good point. You Switzers are quite good thinkers. There is no denying that. However, I don’t know if your chilly climate and steep mountainsides would be agreeable to these furry, tropical, curious creatures who spend their time swinging in trees and eating fruit and any small creature that they can catch”.

“Well”, interjected another townsman, “your chimpanzee is not swinging in a tree, but he’s serving you coffee and biscuits; and your other chimpanzees are not swinging in trees—otherwise, how are they making all these crafts that you are selling? Furthermore, I thought that your entire goal is to take the “monkey” out of the jungle and even try to take a little jungle out of the “monkey”, so to speak, to get them out of the trees, to show them a better life. Would not selling us some chimpanzees be the most-respectable advancement toward that goal?”

Jacobi replied, “You good Switzers have me out-thunk again. I cannot think of anything that could possibly refute your logic. I stand speechless, without rebuttal”.

“So then, sell us some of your fine, well-trained chimpanzees”, a Switzer bellowed, “—name your price!”

“Well”, said Jacobi, “now we come to the hard matter. You do understand that the price will be dear. It is not for a mere backscratcher made from a piece of wood that you are asking. I had to catch these chimpanzees in the wild, build caged shelters to house them. Then I had to feed and care for their health and well-being as I began the slow process of trying to banish the wild from their minds and train them in the ways of civilization. We are talking years of labor and expense. Then these chimps must be brought from Africa by ship to Italy, and then slowly transported up the narrow winding passes through your steep, rugged mountains here to Switzerland. How much do you think, then, would be a fair price for each chimpanzee, and can any of you even afford one?”

Without any cue or command, the chimpanzee now carried a basin of water and a bag of oats to the horse, and fed and watered him and then began, with a large brush, to brush the horse from head to tail, as the stallion whinnied and grunted and shivered with delight.

The pensive Switzers, silently watching the chimpanzee see to the needs of the horse without any order or reminder from Jacobi, caused the fine wheels in these Swiss minds to spin and purr like a quality watch, until one well-dressed Switzer burst forth boldly like a coo-coo out of a clock, “Ten one-ounce gold pieces!”

“Well, there is a fine offer”, said Jacobi. “Now I am glad that I did not travel all the way to Germany where getting a gold piece from a Saxon's grip is like pulling teeth from an old mule".

The townspeople smiled, and a few let out a hearty laugh.

"However", Jacobi continued, "while your offer is nothing to sneer at, there is more to this transaction than a mere passing of coin from one hand to the other".

"How so?" one Switzer asked.

"Well", Jacobi began "this is not a mere pound of butter or a wheel of cheese, or even a clock or a watch that is being traded for the gold. If you find out that the cheese is mouldy or the clock does not work properly, the cheesemaker or the clockmaker is right here in your village and you can treat with him to find an agreeable solution to your dissatisfaction. But what if your newly purchased chimp grows ill in your cold mountain air and dies? What if you don't like the ape, after you have bought him and I am gone? I have no desire to defraud you, and I want you to be happy in your purchase; but I cannot be responsible for your relationship with the beast you purchase, or for your satisfaction with him. A man may buy an ox with which to plow his field and pull his wagon, but if ox and owner do not have personalities that are agreeable to one another, the relationship would not work. It is understandable that the purchaser has regrets and his stomach has soured over the transaction; but that is not the fault of the seller. I would not want to be the cause of any man being disgruntled with the ape that he purchased from me—for I did not seek you out to sell you chimpanzees. I wanted to sell my crafts and wares farther north, where I was heading and you sought me out to purchase the very producers of my crafts. If you are not pleased with the chimpanzee, after all my time and expense, I cannot travel many hundreds of miles to take the chimpanzee back; nor could I give even a partial refund. If I did that, then I would spend years travelling back and forth, at great expense, including the wear and tear on my wagon; even if I merely break even in the transaction—I cannot get that time of my life back. Furthermore, I would not want it on my conscience to be the source of disgruntled persons unhappy with their lawful purchases, and my reputation would be besmeared in all of the land of the Switzers".

“I see your point”, the bargaining Switzer replied. “Those are good points that you raise. I had not thought about it that far ahead. What do you suggest?”

“Well”, Jacobi countered, “I see only two viable options. I can continue my travel to Saxony and peddle my cheap wares there and hope to make it worth my while—and as the daylight is burning I would need to begin travelling at once, in order to make any progress before nightfall; or we can employ the long-time honored and true Roman motto Caveat Emptor. I can offer no guarantee. I cannot be held responsible for any outcome of the purchase. You completely indemnify me of all possible dissatisfaction of any type or degree as a result of your purchase”.

The Switzers stood silent.

Jacobi continued, “There, see, just as I thought. I don’t blame you. That is a lot of money. You offered a fair price and I did not want to quibble for more, because I know you offered it from an honest heart. But you did not realize the hidden factors that came with the price tag. Yes indeed, that is a lot of money and I would not ask you to take such a risk. That would be like buying 10 fine milch cows, without any recourse if they are poor milkers, if they give sour milk, or even die. Who would be bold enough to make such a purchase? It is preposterous”.

With a snap of Jacobi’s fingers the chimpanzee slowly began to pack up the wares, once again, into the wagon.

“Well, I thank you good men for your interest and stimulating conversation, but I must now be going as I have a long road ahead of me, to places unknown and ventures uncertain. Who knows, maybe I will have to travel even farther to the Hollanders, if no one will buy my wares in Saxony, Bavaria or in the Eastern Kingdom”.

After some deep thought and fidgeting around, bewraying his anxiety and internal conflict, the Switzer called out, “We have a deal!”

“Are you certain?” rejoined Jacobi, working hard to suppress a smile and look solemn. “This is a major decision. Why not think about it for a fortnight or so and a few months from now when I return from the two kingdoms and possibly even from the nether regions of Upper Germania, if my horse and I survive the harsh journey, you can give me your decision then”.

“Please don’t go. I have already made up my mind”, the Switzer replied. “How soon can you have a chimpanzee of the finest quality and training delivered to me here?”

“Well”, that would take several months”, Jacobi explained, “and of course that is all dependent upon the weather, the roads, and other factors beyond my control; but I would say three months would be a fair estimate”.

“Agreed, then”, the Switzer asserted. “My name is Huldrich Böcklin. I am a vinter and have a large vineyard and I hope that a chimpanzee such as yours will be a profitable worker. I can give him a good home and he can have all the grapes and cheese that he can eat”, he said with a laugh. “I will have your 10 gulden ready by the time that you return with my chimp”.

Well, three months passed by quickly for the reader, but seemed like forever for eager Huldrich Böcklin and the equally as eager Lazare Jacobi, who well played the role of pure-hearted philanthropist-merchant, but who played the Switzer like a fine-tuned lute. It is not that Jacobi was dishonest in the deal struck with Böcklin, but that he played on the Switzer’s eagerness with expertise psychology and salesmanship. Böcklin indeed got a good deal. But Böcklin’s purchase itself was not the real deal that Jacobi had his eyes set upon. A good fisherman may “chum” the water and throw out perfectly good bait to attract more fish. Jacobi indeed made a good profit in the bargain—10 gulden was 50 times more than he would have made had he sold every last craft and the horse and the wagon too. Jacobi really had no intention of traversing Germania all the way to the Baltic or the North Sea. He was confident in his ability as a “seller” of whatever people needed (whether they realized that they needed it or not), and he did not anticipate having to travel much farther than he actually had.

Böcklin was ecstatic about the new addition to his vineyard. After a little training, his chimp, whose name was Obongo, was a capable worker. So pleased was he, that he bought another, whose name was Hoosheyn; and then a third named Barrakha. Now, it is not that this trio of chimps were better workers than the local Swiss whom he employed; hardly. The crude level of thought and learned behaviours of his newly acquired simian workers could never even come close to a human. The ape can be taught, by reward, classically conditioned, shaped operantly, even taught by punishment. While God made apes' digits and limbs and spine to be adept at climbing and swinging from trees, the mechanical ability of chimp anatomy was not really suited to human activity; he could be trained to be semi-proficient, but his movements were awkward and his work clumsy. While such a primate can be taught to go through the motions of an act, he really does not have the cognitive capacity to comprehend purpose and thus cannot intuit the spirit of the task, as well as the letter.

Regardless, Böcklin was pleased with his purchases. He was wealthy and what would have been a decade's frugal savings to the commoner, to him was an amount small enough to be worth the risk. Besides, though he was not a vain man, most anyone would be happy to own something that no one else owned: a novelty—to be the first and maybe even a trend setter. He even thought of adding a chimpanzee to his winery's logo, to help with sales; or even vinting a small batch exclusively from the grapes that his chimps harvested, with the motto, "Grapes of apes: Never touched by human hands". Though his chimpanzee was not the model vinedresser, chef, and butler that he had envisioned, Böcklin joked, "Well, at least I don't have to worry about my chimps badmouthing me to the other workers or demanding a raise or the Friday off to go on a picnic".

There were, of course, more greedy souls in neighboring cities, who dreamed of "manning" their entire factories with chimpanzee labor, which would get around fair trade and labor laws and guilds and give them a greater profit without having to treat their employees fairly. Two such men, if they can be called that, were Schitterbitter and Goldfart. They each owned large textile factories and were tired of having to care for employees injured on the job. They had been importing Spaniards to work in their factories, but this notion of chimpanzees was even better.

Some of the more affluent Switzers, following Böcklin's lead, also purchased a few chimpanzees. While they were not common in Switzerland, chimpanzees were at least something that the average city-dwelling Switzer had seen, and were beginning to see on a more regular basis.

Many Switzers were disgusted by them.

“They are apes. They stink. I bet they carry disease. They don’t belong here. God put them in Africa where He wanted them. Only the wealthy have them—and not because they make great workers, but because they are wealthy and like to show off. They do all they can to make sure that they get all of our few groschens and we get not any of their many guilders. It’s all about money. They don’t want to pay a good wage to an honest Switzer worker; these foreigner factory owners import Spaniards and now chimps, just so they don’t help our people; while they expect us to buy their products. It really is an abomination.”

However, liberal-emotioned, albeit, simple-minded souls, who thought that the highest form of humanitarianism was to be found in egalitarian socialism (which was destroying France)—as long as someone else paid for it—thought that the chimpanzees were a delight of utopia.

“To think that these wonderful men have given these poor chimpanzees such a better life; how noble and altruistic of them. And the chimpanzees are so polite. Never do I pass one that he does not remove his hat and pay his respects with a cute little bow of his furry head; those adorable round ears standing firm and proud. I wish there were more chimpanzees in Switzerland. I think society would be far better for it. They can teach us a lot.”

Well, Schitterbitter and Goldfart (who were not born in Switzerland, but in Vienna; their ancestors having come from Constantinople, where they had been moneylenders to the Sultan) were intent on having their matza and eating it too—and did all that they could to facilitate the importation of more chimpanzees. Initially, after enough chimpanzees began to be imported and bred in Switzerland, the good Switzers objected. Laws were passed to restrict further importation or breeding. Schitterbitter and Goldfart then sought the assistance of some of their kinsmen, Spittelmacher and Dummshitz who were still in the banking industry in Vienna. They began to use their collective wealth and influence to grease the machinery of church and state to be more accommodating to the wheels of “progress”.

A plan was formulated, and a multi-pronged approach was carried out against the good-hearted, pure-minded Switzters. The schools began teaching evolution, teaching that the chimps were our brothers. Churches began teaching that it was “unchristian” to refuse kindness and equal rights to chimps. Politicians and the newspapers conspired, along with socialist organizations and even Lutheran churches and “charities”, to recount all of the woes of the poor persecuted chimps in Africa: how there were chimp wars, one tribe against the other; that there were so many chimps that Africa could not contain them all, and that it was our “Christian duty” to take as many chimps as possible into the small and cramped nations of Europe. Bypassing the canton authorities, the subversive elements in church and state stepped up their disinformation campaign and emotional sales pitches, guilt tripping the good-hearted Switzters, and forced them (by bribing or threatening to ruin whoever would oppose this mass importation) to open their nation to the poor, persecuted chimps.

“You see how moral and upright are the chimps that are already among us—so well trained, respectful, law abiding, and courteous they are. How can you call yourselves Christians, and turn a blind eye and deaf ear to their plight. Jesus said, ‘When ye have done it unto the least of these... you’ve done it unto Me’. Why then do you resist such a good deed? Are we not all God’s children? Apes are human too. Your genes and heritage are no better than theirs.”

The common people, sadly, having forgotten the Word of God taught to them so bravely by Ulrich Zwingli, were easily conned into believing the many twisted perversions of Holy Writ spewed by these false prophets. But since these notions came from people whom they respected as “professionals” and who were long-time “family friends”, who never for a moment did they think would betray them, the common people began to acquiesce to the illegitimate demands falsely placed upon their consciences.

Soon, Switzerland came to be inundated with many hundreds of thousands of chimpanzees. However, the common Switzer who lived at “ground zero” on the front battle lines (in the once-clean, safe, and quiet cities) immediately began to realize the utter fraud that had been perpetrated upon them.

Truth be told, of all the millions of chimpanzees in Africa, only a few dozen of them were smart enough and gentle enough to be so trained. Years of attempting to selectively breed for the more-intelligent and more-gentle traits proved an utter failure. The old “Bait and Switch” was cleverly employed. The few chimps that were sold, initially to the good Switzers, were the only ones that could be trained. The other teeming hundreds of thousands and millions were untrainable, unable to learn, unable to have the wild even temporarily faded from their instincts. The “good father” Jacobi thus terribly deceived the people, into thinking that all of his thousands of chimpanzees were as well trained and civilized as Toby. Finding that small handful of chimps capable of having civilization weakly imprinted upon them was like panning for gold in a waterfall or a mighty, rushing river. These original apes who were at the “very top” of the Bell Curve of chimp potential, were held up to be the “average chimp”—though they were not the average chimp, but rather “aberrations” or “freaks of nature” that could be trained, temporarily. Temporarily, I say, because once back in the wild (or if the wild came to them) it was then again, “monkey see monkey do” in an apish sort of sense. The call of the wild, like the sirens on the rocks calling with their irresistible enchanting lore to sailors within earshot, was more than even the best-trained chimps could resist; it was like trying to train a retriever not to chase after something that is thrown. Being around their common, wild, unrestrained cousins that were pouring into Switzerland was too much for “nurture” and resulted in an explosion of “nature”—and all their learned behaviours and manners of “civilization” were extinguished like a candle in an avalanche.

Soon crime became rampant in formerly peaceful, crime-free Switzerland. Chimpanzees began stealing whatever wasn’t locked up. If things were locked up they “went ape” and began vandalizing, destroying, trashing, burning everything around. Squalor and destruction were everywhere; as well as urine and feces. To act out their rage, they began assaulting the Switzers, ripping clothes off women and violating them—and murdering. The corrupt politicians, still well paid by Goldfart and his cohorts, retorted, “Please, please, good people, understand: There will be ‘minor hiccups’ along the road to ‘progress’ and civilization” and “we need to be understanding” and “we cannot prosecute the chimps for crimes: for it is part of their culture and such things are not considered to be crimes to them. Why, your ancestors did not leap from barbarism into being clockmakers and chocolatiers. Were it not for Africa we would not even have chocolate, whence the cacao is imported. You all were once apes too. Where is your heart and your Christian charity”.

Those who spoke out to rebut such lies, said, “You blaspheme the Word of God. Our ancestors were never apes. Neither did we descend from cavemen as your socialistic propaganda says, with which you pervert the minds of our youth in the schools and in society. God created Adamkind separate and distinct from all other living creatures—in His Very Own Image and Likeness—and we did not advance from barbarism but were created in a perfect state of civilization from the very start. Sin, based upon lies—like the type that you peddle—has caused our degeneracy and entering of barbarism that we and our ancestors never knew.”

However, whenever one of the few bold Switzers who knew and loved the truth made such an attempt, he was shouted down as a “hater” or a “racist”; his business loans, if he had any, were called in; larger businesses and many townspeople stopped doing business with him, and he was ruined. If he persisted yet, he would usually “have a heart attack” or die in some “freak avalanche”, or “slip” on ice and fall in the fast flowing river to be dashed on the rocks. The rest of the townspeople, reduced to barnyard animals, simply pretended not to see their fallen comrades, and stepped over them and on them as if they were not even there. Once people are reduced to existing on a primitive level, with little reason, and an uncontrollable over-abundance of emotions, especially fear, it is quite easy to spook the human herd into a stampede away from something.

However, the politicians and self-appointed “shapers” of society never answered the obvious questions: If the chimpanzees don’t recognize vandalism, theft, assault, rape, and murder as crimes, why then would it be a crime for the Switzers to exterminate the violent savages, as would happen naturally back in the jungle, were they still in Africa? If apes cannot be held accountable for committing a crime against a Switzer why then should a Switzer be held accountable for justly punishing the chimpanzees for their crimes? Furthermore, if a Switzer was in the bush of Africa and it would not be a crime to defend himself from a deadly attack by a wild animal, why is it considered a crime to defend himself from the attack of a wild animal while in his own country?

Such questions, of course, were never permitted to be voiced publicly. In the event that such a question was asked, in some forum, the reply was, “—because Switzers do understand the difference between right and wrong, and therefore, they are responsible”. However, again, that discussion would not be allowed to take place because the rebuttal would be: “God declares in His Word, upon which our cantons and nation were founded, that if a beast kills a man, the beast is to be put to death—even a dumb ox. Man was made in God’s Image; beasts were not. To kill man unjustly is an attack against the Image of God. Whether an animal realizes what it did is utterly irrelevant. It is to be put down if it commits a violent act that injures a human. Furthermore, the Bible says that the owner of the beast is also to be executed for allowing his beast to run amok. Therefore, if chimpanzees do not have the moral restraint of a conscience, are essentially psychopaths and cannot comprehend the difference between right and wrong, cannot abide by our laws then they have no business being in civilization and should be shipped back to Africa where the lions and hyenas and leopards will teach them proper manners. Finally, essentially, the politicians are the owners of these beasts, since they champion their “rights” and illegally support them from the public fund, and therefore, the politicians are responsible every single time one of these wild animals kills or injures a human, steals, or damages property!

The good Switzers in fear contemplated how they could get the evil genie back into the bottle. As much as the chimpanzees were a serious problem, the more-serious problem was the subversive politicians and ministers and newspapers and liberal “pillars” of the community, who shamed any Switzers who thought any thought that was anything less than blind acceptance. Other foreigners who somehow wriggled their way into places of power in Switzerland, fellow tribesmen of Jacobi and his kin, were two politicians, Bladderspritzer and Christismörder, assisted by their cousins, lawyers by the names of Sheistermeister and Fleischesser. Together, they conspired illegally (by use of bribe, threat, blackmail, and coercion) to change the very nature of Swiss law, passing, “Anti-chimpism” and “Anti-ape-ite” laws, draconian in nature. The violation of these unconstitutional laws would land a law-abiding, peaceful Switzer in jail, possibly for the rest of his life (and the forfeiture of all his property), for even voicing dissent from the “new official State version” of history, sociology, anthropology, biology, philosophy, theology, or law, in regard to chimpanzees and apes of other tribes and their religions. True history must be forgotten for people to casually surrender such a priceless and irreplaceable heritage and sovereign nation. The history books began to be changed. Daily news stories, books, movies, and television shows, glorified apes and even brazenly declared that the chimpanzees were the first inhabitants of Switzerland, and the hateful Switzers came and stole the land and imposed their name and rules upon it, oppressing the poor apes. Chimpanzee History Month was implemented, and numerous other taxpayer-funded “charities” that exclusively catered to the now-indolent chimpanzees, most of whom did no work: the female chimps stayed at home watching the new Ape-rah talk show and had a new chimp baby each year, while the male apes went on drunken crimes sprees.

It takes a very skilled sheister (and a very ignorant and trusting “mark”, or “target”, that is “victim”) to convince a person that the 5-lb. flawless diamond that he is holding is actually a worthless piece of glass, and “just hand it over and I will dispose of it for you”. God declared through the prophet Hosea, “My people are destroyed because they lack knowledge”. God commands us to honor and preserve our heritage, which is actually part of His Law—which is even implied in the 5th Commandment: Honor thy father and mother. It is not honoring to your mother or father, or your ancestors, to violate the Commands of God (and it certainly does not honor God) and to join with aliens and pollute the priceless heritage that your ancestors preserved and handed down to you that had been handed to them by God Himself. Thus, Christianity and our heritage both have to be attacked, and the method by which that is achieved is by criminally brainwashing the youth of the nation from childhood and teaching them that their heritage is worthless, and that they should be ashamed of it, and that in order to “do penance”, they must commit racial and national suicide; turn their nation and their bodies over to the savages, reject the Bible as a collection of fables, and become addicted to porn and perversion of every stripe and fornicate freely with whatever happens to be in the area when the urge comes over you (living, dead, human, animal, vegetable, or mineral—it really doesn’t matter).

Contrary to the “wonderful contribution” that the chimpanzees were touted to make to Switzer society, the Switzer taxpayer was soon overburdened to pay for food, housing, and health care for all the “immi-chimps” and “apefugees”, and for all the extra police and government departments, the cost of repairing damage and rebuilding burned down neighborhoods. Whole neighborhoods were more like war zones; and Switzerland developed a massive “National” debt, something they had never known. All sorts of diseases were also on the rise, sexually transmitted, as well as others, such as hepatitis and even leprosy. On top of all this was the insult of having their peaceful community, which had been handed down to them by their ancestors who built the nation, carving it out of the mountains, stripped from them and defiled. The chimps began tearing down and desecrating monuments of Switzer national heroes, even Jean Piaget, Carl Gustav Jung, Huldrich Zwilingli, and William Tell—while the feckless, traitorous politicians did nothing.

As Colonial preacher in the U.S., Joel Hawes expressed, “Few people disparage a distinguished ancestry except those who have none of their own”. In order for the chimps to “feel better” about themselves, the Switzers were required to abandon their heritage, their honor, their history, their faith, their identity—and to give up half of all the things that they worked so hard to achieve and give it outright to the chimps. The chimps soon consumed or destroyed all that was given to them and they then demanded more, claiming that they had nothing and that the Switzers were “exploiting” them and “keeping the down”. Thus, laws were passed demanding the Switzers to again give 50% of all they owned to the apes, both personal and business. For any Switzer to even notice that chimpanzees committed savage and brutal acts on a daily basis was itself a “hate crime”; and those who did notice were expected to “smile and keep it to yourself”. Funded by the same conspirators, groups arose called, “Bonobo lives matter” and “Ape-tifa” and claimed that apes follow a “religion of peace” and that all the Switzers are “haters” and have created this situation. It would really be amusing were it not so deadly serious. It is patterned almost exactly upon the same socialist, antichristian philosophy that George Orwell would so casually expose in his 1946 satire, Animal Farm. It followed the very same modus operandi of all the socialists from Marx to Allinsky to Merkel.

This is considered “progress”—progress indeed for those trying to destroy Christendom. The Switzers were told, “The old Norman Rockwell nostalgia and picture-perfect life that you were taught once existed is a myth that never existed”. Those Switzers who were born and raised during this awful time in history, were raised to think that crime, assault, riots, vandalism, terrorism, rape, murder, and such are just a “normal” part of life and this is how life has always been. The Switzers were now, for several generations, brainwashed from youth in the socialist, antichrist schools and churches and programmed with “learned helplessness” as well as false guilt. Young Switzers were odiously taught that it was their fault that the chimpanzees “act out” violently, as a normal and acceptable way of demonstrating against their “oppression”. The Switzers were taught that as a form of self-atonement, they simply need to grin and bear it and silently accept anything that the apes do to them as just punishment that all Switzers deserve. Of course, the subversive foreigners who were responsible for the mass importation of the chimps, and who grew filthy rich off the enterprise, such as Jacobi, Goldfart, and the others, they were never mentioned as even being involved. The guilt fell on the common Switzer who never owned nor wanted a chimp. It even became illegal to have tiny white marshmallows float on top of a mug of hot chocolate, as it depicted white supremacy over brown victims.

A safe, peaceful, and prosperous nation that had existed for a millennia, was now being destroyed within a few decades. But if that were not abhorrent and tragic enough, it is not only Switzerland that has been brainwashed to commit national suicide—but all the nations of Europe, all the nations of Christedom. Sir Edmund Burke, Christian Anglo-Irish statesman said, “All that is required for evil to triumph over good is for good men to do nothing”. However, I posit, if “good men” do nothing in the face of such evil, then they are not really good, are they? God tells us, “to him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin”.

— “THE CURSE CAUSELESS SHALL NOT COME” —

How did everything that was so right go so wrong? It all has the same pathology: turning from the Truth. God’s Word is what made all the nations of Christendom great—not merely the existence of God’s Word, but its existence within the hearts of God’s people that demonstrated itself in outward actions in obedience to how God commanded us to live. The enemy of our souls did not like that, and set out to destroy Christendom—to destroy God’s people from off the face of the earth. The way to do this was to import, en masse, millions and millions of Third-World aliens into Christendom. This was a multi-purpose plan of attack.

First of all, the invasion of alien people would destroy us, in every way (racially, spiritually, doctrinally, economically, culturally, criminally, morally). “Divide and conquer” is the age-old dictum; and well has it worked! The U.S. colonists could stand against the world-power of England, only because at that time we were still one people of one faith! Divide and conquer. Now society is fragmented; it is not cohesive—it cannot stand together. Not only do the teeming millions not share the same faith, the same values, the same mind, the same morals, the same history, the same race—but the majority are hell-bent on overthrowing us and taking our entire nations from us. No one can stand up because no one knows whom he can trust—and we are outnumbered by the aliens and the majority of our own people have been brainwashed and would side with the enemy. Christ prophetically said of the end times,

“a man’s foes shall be they of his own household” (Matthew 10:36).

So complete has been this perversion of society, that nearly every Christian family has been polluted with some family member being married to alien blood, and / or defiled by homoperversion—and the majority of the other members of such families, revealing that they hate God, accept and embrace this perversion in their family, which rots the family tree at the very root.

Alexander Solzhenitsyn, who suffered under soviet communism in the gulags, expressed a timeless truth:

“To destroy a people you must first sever their roots”.

Marx lamented of Britain (back when Britain was functionally Christian—which it had been all the way back to the first century), “England is the rock upon which every revolutionary wave is broken”.

Queen Victoria expressed:

“The Bible is the secret to Great Britain’s greatness.”

Therefore, the only solution to the antichrist enemy’s “problem” was to corrupt the people through mongrelization* and dechristianize them through demoralization and destroying their faith in the Word of God by Jewish professors given positions in the highest institutions of learning and even in the church (such as the current Herod who is Head of the entire Church of England). Britain is no longer great, because Britain is no longer functionally Christian—except in a vestigial sort of way; like not wanting to euthanize grandma who is in a vegetative state in the nursing home, but really having no affection for her; or as doctors and scientists, for centuries believed that the appendix served no physiological function, but was a mere “left-over” from “evolution”, as if it were part of the “former monkey’s tail” that shrank and disappeared—but which doctors were often hesitant to remove unless necessary, “just in case” it actually had an important function (now it is known that its removal increases risk of cancer by 60%—God does not create with “left over, unneeded parts”).

* See my, [A Bolshevik Primer.]

On the other side of the pond, French historian and philosopher Alexis de Tocqueville expressed, “America is great because America is good. If America ever ceases to be good, she shall cease to be great.”

This obsolete greatness, likewise, was due to Christianity, Tocqueville also expressed,

“The religious atmosphere was the first thing that struck me upon arrival in the United States... For Americans, the idea of Christianity and Liberty are so completely mingled that it is almost impossible to get them to conceive of one without the other... Religion... should therefore be considered as the First of their political institutions... from the start politics and religion agreed, and they have not since ceased to do so.”

[It needs to be pointed out, that when our Founders, when the Puritans, when other learned Christians from the 1500s to 1800s used the term “religion” in reference to the nations of Christendom, they were only referring to Christianity. They did not speak of the “spiritual” customs of alien peoples on an equal footing. To refer to their “spiritual” ideas, one is often hard-pressed to find an accurate term that all would understand. Regardless, when they spoke of religion within the nations of Christendom, in general, they spoke only of Christianity. Our God is the only God and God commanded no other gods to be recognized or worshipped, and no idols made to them: for there is no other god (only demons and Satan who delude people into thinking that they are gods). “Religions” of alien peoples were generally referred to as superstitions or paganism. Christians who modernly think that all religions have equal value and equal right to expression in Christendom—are not Christians at all, but humanists who are deluded into thinking that they are Christians, or they are outright conspirators pretending to be Christians.]

President Thomas Jefferson expressed,
“The Bible is the source of Liberty”.

President John Quincy Adams expressed,
“Nowhere in history is God’s hand more evident than in the establishment of America”.

A contemporary Christian music group known as Whiteheart, decades ago, in a song, actually had the (limited) spiritual insight to compare America in her degenerate state, to Babylon. In the first chorus the words go, “Go down Babylon, time has passed you by; go down Babylon, breathe your final sigh; go down Babylon, beware the Master’s cry; go down Babylon, all of you must die.” In the second chorus the words switch to, “Go down America, time has passed you by; go down American, breathe your final sigh; go down American, beware the Master’s cry; go down American, before your nation dies”. I do not doubt that some ignorant, blindly patriotic “Christians” (who are quite good friends with the world) were not happy with those lyrics. It is true: Cockroaches and other vermin scurry to hide when the light is turned on. As I shall explain later, America (and all of Christendom) indeed has become, literally end-time Babylon, which is not only full of every form of immorality and perversion—even glorifying it—but which name itself means “confusion by mixing”.

Why has America fallen?—because America is no longer good; which means that America is no longer functionally Christian: not because it “never was Christian”, which is a lie, but because the majority of people that have flooded into and illegitimately been born in the U.S. are aliens or various endless crosses with aliens who are not and cannot be true Christians. The tares sown in among the wheat mimic and then destroy (the tares mentioned in the Bible are darnels, which look like wheat but are highly toxic, and not only choke out the wheat, but can kill those who eat the tares thinking that they are wheat). This pagan invasion and counterfeit Christians and illegitimate Americans (who have watered down and polluted and changed both Christianity and our form of government) do not invalidate our actual lawful government—such only reveal the putrid illegitimacy of that which has supplanted that which is true and legitimate. If a Swede is dying of malaria, it is not that he is no longer a Swede—but that disease has taken over his body and is winning the battle. Of those Americans who have retained the integrity of their heritage, the majority have been brainwashed into rejecting Christianity outright, or they have accepted a polluted, watered-down, impotent paganized, humanistic Apostate “Christianity” instead; which means that after one or two more generations, they will have polluted their heritage and abandoned Christianity altogether. The only forms of “Christianity” that will then remain are either a superstitious pagan, ignorant hierarchial-mandated Catholic form like that practiced by Hispanics, or some mystical Pentecostal anti-intellectual, non-doctrinal emotional form such as practiced by Koreans or Africans. Every denomination aliens enter they set out to destroy the doctrine.

Many of those who have abandoned Christianity entirely, have done so because even though they don’t know true theology, they realize that the multi-cultural, gender-perverse, interfaith, irrational “Christianity” spewed by the mainstream church is an abomination and they want no part in it. The lie of “Judeo-Christianity” (the lie that Christianity and the Bible had its origin in the Jews) has also soured their stomachs and prejudiced them against the truth of their own heritage. But that is part of the plan of the enemy; just like the Edomite-Canaanite Pharisees (who masqueraded as Israelites) of New Testament times, they perverted the Law of God and turned God’s people away from it! By turning entirely from the Law of God, God’s people lived in sin and developed their own false religions; and thus, incurred God’s Judgement.

Many of our people today, likewise, have been fooled into abandoning Christianity completely, because of the corrupt version. That's as wise as burning all the money in your wallet, safe, and bank account simply because there are counterfeit bills in circulation. Each bill, like each doctrine, must be individually examined and the counterfeit discarded and the true kept and guarded.

The majority of those who still adhere to the corrupt form of Christianity are not Christians; are following a false christ; are not of God; are worshipping a false god; and they will with eagerness embrace the Antichrist.

[Note: America is “not a Christian nation” not because an African usurper touted to be a “Constitutional scholar” declared that it was not. America was established as a Christian nation in its very founding!—which cannot be refuted by the evidence; it can only be dismissed by those who refuse to believe that the evidence exists and never study or discuss it. Some ignorant Christians even claim that the U.S. is not a Christian nation because the U.S. Constitution lacks overt Christian wording. They engage in a strawman non sequitur either out of dishonesty or simple crude indolent dull-mindedness. Each of the individual States and their Constitutions were overtly Christian—and therefore, by its very essence and nature, a confederation of those states (which is all that the “uniting” was supposed to achieve—it was not intended to form an autonomous Federal bureaucracy) would itself be Christian. If you put your hand in a glove is your hand no longer a hand? If you and 15 of your Christian friends form a soccer team to play locally, how can that soccer team not be a Christian team? It is utterly irrelevant whether you drew up an official charter laying out your Christian beliefs. The purpose of the team is to play soccer, not teach doctrine. Since each member is a Christian, it is understood that each player will play by Christian principles because a Higher Law governs his behaviour. Only if nonchristians wanted to join the team, would by-laws have to be drawn up requiring that each person on the team be a Christian, who understands Christian doctrine and lives as God commanded and agrees to play by Christian principles to glorify God. God did not institute the command against murder, or marrying a woman and her sister at the same time—until such things became an issue. The individual U.S. Colonies, the original States were Christian in their very origin and nature; their Constitutions were overtly Christian. The Founders did not have a crystal ball and never for a moment imagined that Jews, Turks, Muslims, Africans, Hispanics, Orientals, and every other race and religion and every form of perversion would one day threaten our nation—even as you do not have a clue what will happen 250 years from now, should Christ tarry and should we survive the “virtual-reality show” version of The Planet of the Apes for that long. Benjamin Franklin himself suggested that before each day's session of debates at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia (where I was born, my ancestors founding Germantown) prayers should be offered to God for His assistance. No one asked, “Which God...?” and no one declared that doing such would “violate his rights” as an atheist or because he was a follower of Talmudism, Shintoism, Islam, Hinduism, or voodooism! Modern liberals’ minds are defective and polluted in addition to their being anti-intellectual, immoral, and dishonest.

It was not the Founders’ intent (or the reason for which they were sent to Philadelphia as delegates from the States) to settle matters of doctrine; though some were pastors and Biblical scholars, the majority were not theologians and were not suited to such debate. They had enough trouble agreeing on the wording of the Constitution; they would never have settled all the questions that would have arisen for a theological statement of faith. That was not their purpose. The States were not abolished; they retained all of their rights and their unique identity. If 12 horses are harnessed together for one specific event, are they no longer horses? Do they no longer have a horse spirit? That was the intention of the Constitution, like the Pendragon of the Welsh Silurians or the Overlord chieftain of the Saxon Heptarchy: One chieftain was elected as a leader for times of war or internal dispute, but beyond those very limited roles, the individual kingdoms retained their full autonomy. So it was with the U.S. Constitution and the States. The fact that traitors and aliens have subverted the Constitution to change it from what our Founders intended and established does not change what our Republic (NOT “Democracy”*) lawfully is. It only means that they are guilty of High Treason and alien outsiders pretending to be Americans are guilty of subversion. There is no statute of limitations on fraud, treason, or sedition.

* Our Founders specifically told us that they did not give us a democracy! Democracies are short lived because they are prone to corruption and devolve into a communist oligarchy. Any politician, educator, journalist, or jurist who says that the U.S. is a democracy is either an utter ignoramus or actually part of the conspiracy to destroy the Government of these United States. Next time any “authority” refers to us as a “Democracy”—as him which he is (ignoramus or traitor).]

President John Adams also expressed,

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate for the government of any other”.

Again, the Bible is the only source of morality and Christianity was the only religion in the mind of our Founders. There were no Indian chiefs, Muslims, Buddhists, Jews, Hindus, or any other pagan at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia—and the Founders founded this nation for themselves, for those whom they represented, and for their posterity. Our Constitution afforded rights to no other people; except to the extent that if they lived in peace in their own villages and did not abuse Americans, they themselves would not be abused. President John Adams, 17th U.S. Secretary of the Navy George Bancroft, and German historian Leopold von Ranke all expressed that without the Protestant Reformation, there would have been no American Revolution. Many hundred more similar testimonies could be offered.*¹ The Constitution is to be interpreted according to the spirit of the times in which it was written and the clear intent of the Founders—not according to modern “interpretations”—those who champion new interpretations are guilty of subversion and High Treason. The Constitution itself is to be interpreted in light of the Common Law*² (American Common Law derived from English Common Law which was based upon the Law of God and codified by Alfred “the Great” A.D. c.890).

*² “It [The U.S. Constitution] must be interpreted in the light of Common Law, the principles and history of which were familiarly known to the framers of the Constitution. The language of the Constitution could not be understood without reference to the Common Law.” (U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649, 18 S. Ct. 456)

“Law of the Land” means “The Common Law”. (Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill. 140, 146 (1843) - Justice Bronson; and State v. Simon, 2 Spears 761, 767 (1884) - Justice O’Neal)

The U.S. adopted the Common Laws of England with the Constitution. (Coldwell v. Hill, 176 S.E. 383 (1934))

“On every question of construction of the Constitution let us carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, and instead of trying what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, conform to the probable one in which it was passed.” —Thomas Jefferson]

Furthermore, the peoples of Christendom are the very people of God.* The Jews are not the Israelites of the Bible; they are the Edomite-Canaanites who invaded the Land of Israel and eventually supplanted the true Israelites and assumed their identity—even as they are doing in all of the nation of Christendom; and they are the ones spearheading every conspiracy to destroy us.

* See: [Uncovering the Mysteries of Your Hidden Inheritance, God’s Chosen People: Who Is? — Who Isn’t?, and Are You An Anti-Semite?.]

God commanded His people to be completely separate from all other peoples, because we are not the same and we did not all descend (much less “evolve”) from a common ancestor. God said that He separated His people from other peoples even as He separated clean animals from unclean animals. Sheep and pigs do not share a common ancestor. God separated them in the very act of creation in creating them as separate and distinct, unrelated species. Fresh water and salt water do not issue forth from the same fountain (spring, or artesian well). God made everything after its own kind and forbade crossing. Simply because God created everything does not give everything the same purpose or status. God created chimpanzees, but they are not His children. Even as all do not share a common origin, all do not share a common destiny. God thus commanded, in the New Testament (quoting the Old),

“Come out from among them and be ye separate and touch [join] not the unclean thing [people] and ye shall [continue to] be My sons and daughters [indeed]”.

Nebulous “things” is not what is being discussed—but people! People is what the passage in II Corinthians 6 (and Isaiah 52) is talking about. God commands, “be separate”; the Apostate Church and godless government and communism says, “amalgamate”. Babylon means “confusion by mixing”. Babylon represents the godless mongrelized world and God has nothing favorable to say about it. If you don’t know Christ’s Voice or reject His Doctrine and Commands you are not His sheep.

Secondly, God commanded that we remain separate from all other peoples (which our people did for millennia—millennia—and during that time we were prosperous and safe and our nations experienced their Golden Ages when we obeyed God*). For us to begin amalgamating is sin—it is tantamount to murder, since we were created in God’s Image (and that murder, whether outright or through the genocidal amalgamation of God’s people with alien peoples is a destruction of that Image—and such are bastards / mongrels).

Scripture tells us that if we regard iniquity in our hearts God will not hear our prayers—and that our prayers are even an abomination to Him if we turn our ear from His Law (and God said that if we forgot His Law He would forget our children—and that is why our children are being destroyed now: This is the last generation!). However, the modern false prophets, the modern pied pipers not merely of Hamlin, but of all Christendom, have deluded the flock of God with the abominable, anti-intellectual lie that God abolished His Law and that we don't need to obey His Law. This is the perfect mind / soul heist! —but not merely of individual souls, but of all of Christendom! because as goes the people so goes the nation. If Christians think that God abolished His Law, then they are in sin, but don't know it. They don't think that they have done anything to warrant God's Wrath, therefore, they don't realize their need to repent or ask forgiveness. Until that happens, God will not hear their prayers or bless them—or deliver us.

[* Even animals obey the boundaries that God established—except the bucks, bulls, rams, roosters, male dogs and cats (basically anything with testosterone) when they are in rut and baser instincts take over—when that occurs, “temporary insanity” may explain (but not condone) such actions, and they may even hump a tree, a fence post, or your leg; but it is not natural; their hormones have short-circuited their brains, and they don't even know what they are doing. Humans cannot claim such an excuse, for God created us with an intellect far higher than the animal kingdom, and He gave us His Law so that we are without excuse. Ignorance and custom are no excuse. A man may go to a bar and run up a tab and deludedly think that he will never have to pay for all those years of drinks, simply because the owner has never presented a bill to him; but that does not mean that a bill will not be forthcoming. God is a meticulous bookkeeper. It does not matter how many generations your family has not been obeying what God commanded. That does not change the perpetuity, force, or reality of God's Law; it merely demonstrates your guilt. There is no doubt that when hormones are flooding the body temptation is greater; but that does not lessen moral culpability or responsibility. For millennia the crossing of the races was considered an abomination—because God declared it so and because in their very nature all creatures know that it is wrong. The only ones who don't believe it to be wrong are those who are mixed, and they have homicidal hostility toward those who aren't and think that everyone should commit racial suicide to make them feel better about themselves. Since the mingled peoples are in the majority in Christendom and in militant ascendancy, that means that those who are not mixed are “Public Enemy Number One”. Now, in the modern age, the two greatest crimes in the eyes of the world are: 1. being against interracial marriage / integration; and 2. being against homoperversion. God declared a curse on those who would call evil “good” and good “evil”. That characterizes, indicts, and condemns the modern world—including the modern church.]

Do you want to take a wild guess why our nations are not experiencing their Golden Ages any more? Why is crime rampant? Why is political corruption considered “normal”? Why are perversions of every shape, form, and flavor considered, “natural” and lifestyle “choices” and legislatively protected? (even though in all of our nations, for centuries—and even millennia for our older nations—such perverse immorality and mental disturbance would have been executed or driven from the nation). Why do politicians casually commit crimes that if the average citizen committed would result in his imprisonment or execution? Why are we in gargantuan, astronomical, unpayable debt? Even if we were able to actually work out a payment schedule—and force the politicians to stick to Constitutional bare-bones budget or any overage of bills would come out of their own paychecks or be charged to their personal credit cards—and even if we could faithfully pay the amount due every month for the next 500 years, the so-called U.S. “National” Debt can never be paid off. We can’t even pay the interest on the debt.

[See Appendix A.]

Jesus said that His sheep know His Voice and follow [obey] Him and that they will not follow the voice of a stranger. Christ said, “Think not that I am come to destroy, the Law, I am not come to destroy the Law... not one jot or tittle shall pass from the Law”. Why then are the majority of “Christians” following the voice of a stranger? —only because they are not Christ’s sheep (or they are terribly deceived and hopefully one day will have their eyes opened and be granted repentance unto the acknowledgement of the truth, otherwise, they will be revealed to have been goats and not sheep). The Law was never abolished. Salvation was never the result of keeping the Law. No amount of not sinning can “un-sin” sinned sin. The Law is God’s Moral Code, His “House Rules” that He expects His children to obey “throughout all your generations forever” (and if you violate what God commands and God does not severely discipline you, God says that you are not His son, but a bastard).

God’s Law contains all that we need to know in our relation to Him and to our kinsmen. God’s Law is a mere 613 laws or so, all given for our good; yet most “Christians” think that it is “too burdensome” (even though many are “common sense” that most civilized people with a conscience do naturally anyway). On the other hand, those same “Christians” neurotically goose-step to hundreds of thousands*¹ of unconstitutional laws heaped upon us by corrupt, renegade politicians to enslave us and enrich themselves. When asked why, they declare that God commands us to. That is quite ironic that God expects us to obey evil men but not Himself! But that is a spurious interpretation and twisting of God’s Word.*²

[*¹ Federal “law” alone occupies over 17-feet of shelf space of 34 volumes, written in six to seven point print. God’s Law fits in the palm of your hand. Those who think that God’s Law was abolished and that it is “oppressive” don’t even know God and God has sent them strong delusion so that they believe a lie so that they fill up the measure of God’s Wrath. I have given my life to learn and teach God’s Word. I have written over 100 books; many 300-800 pages. Those who do not avail themselves of these books and learn will have no excuse before God on the Day of Judgment; turn off the tv (it does not contain any information that will help you on the Day of Judgement; it does not contain any information that will help save our people from the coming chaos). Those “Christians” who do and say nothing when they see evil raise its vile ugly head in their family, neighborhood, church, community, nation deny Christ! Confessing Christ is not merely saying in your heart, “Jesus, I believe in You”. Faith without works is dead (that is, it is not faith). Scripture tells us that the demons themselves believe—and even tremble. But it will not save them. Most “Christians” don’t even tremble. Confessing Christ is not merely saying “yes” if someone asks if you are a Christian. It means being a follower of Christ and standing up for what Christ would have stood up for and rebuking what Christ would have rebuked. Morality never changes. Sin never becomes “non-sin”; evil never becomes good; darkness never becomes light; immorality never becomes morality; abominations never become “wonderfully wholesome, normal, natural lifestyle choices”. What God declared to be sin and abominations 3,500 years ago still are today and always will be. The modern Christian church is the Harlot Church and is the Apostate Church. It is Antichrist. Christ would condemn political corruption, the teaching of lies and perversion in school and church, multi-culturalism, homoperversion, inter-faith, and the violation of all that God commanded. Those who think otherwise are humanists who don’t know God and are not Christians. They will hear, “I never knew you”, because they live in lawlessness, not knowing Christ’s Voice, and they deny Christ each time that they sin and each time that they don’t stand up to evil right in their face. Those who are ashamed of Christ, Christ declares that He will be ashamed of them. You are a shameful son if your father is holy and righteous and you are embarrassed of what he believes and stands for and commands. You are a shameful son if you apologize to others for what your father and your family believe. Christ nowhere taught tolerance. No other gods! Give not that which is holy to the dogs (or chimpanzees) and cast not pearls before swine (or chimpanzees) lest they turn and trample and rend you. This is what has happened to Christendom.

*2 See, The War Between the Children of Light and the Powers of Darkness.]

Nowhere does Scripture say that God abolished His Law. Those who think that the Bible says such are terribly confused or agents of Satan to lead and keep God's people in sin. Christ bore our judgment for us and the curse of the Law was abolished—the penalty: the death sentence that was against us (“the soul that sinneth shall die”). The method for temporary atonement (blood sacrifices) was not “abolished” either—Christ, the Perfect Lamb of God was the Eternal Sacrifice for us, and His Death replaced the sacrificial system, it did not abolish it. However, the Law of God Itself was unchanged. If the Law of God was abolished there was no need for Christ to die and no need for anyone to repent of or be saved from anything. Where there is no law there is no crime or penalty.

The epistles of John were the last books of the Bible to be written—even after the Book of Revelation. John not only mentions nothing about the Law being abolished (I guess he “did not get the memo”), but he wrote that “sin is transgression of the Law” and that if a man says that he knows God and does not keep His Commandments he is a liar (that is, he does not even know God) and the Truth (Christ Jesus, the Way the Truth, and the Life; and the Holy Spirit of Truth) is not in him. Throughout the epistles John also talks of repentance from and forgiveness for sin; but if there is no Law, there can be no sin and there can be nothing to repent of or be forgiven for. Christ said that not one jot or tittle would pass from the Law. John himself wrote in the Book of Revelation that the only ones who would survive the coming Wrath of the end times will be those who have the Faith / Testimony of Christ Jesus and who keep the Commandments / Law of God. Christ Himself said that on the Day of Judgment, many who thought that they were “good Christians”, doing “wonderful things in His Name” will hear Christ declare, “Depart from Me ye that work iniquity, I never knew you”. However, this word should not be translated iniquity; it is the Greek word anomos, meaning “no law”, and thus should be rendered, “lawlessness”. God even said in the Book of Hebrews (quoting Jeremiah) that God would write His Law upon the hearts of His people. Why would God write on the hearts of His people that which He was going to abolish? That makes as much sense as a teenage boy getting his girlfriend's name tattooed on his chest even though he plans on breaking up with her next week. Christ kept God's Law perfectly to set the example for us. Why set the example if the Law was to be abolished? God is not the one confused.

Works, keeping the Law, bearing fruit, walking in Christ, being obedient (all synonyms) do not save, but are evidence that one has been saved because he resultantly walks in newness of life as God commanded: We are saved unto good works which God before ordained that we should walk in them: God commanded, "This is the Way, walk ye in it... turn not to the left hand or the right... do all that I have commanded thee".

Obeying your father does not make you his child—it establishes you as an honorable son whom the father will bless and who will inherit of the father. If a father tells his 5-year old, "No playing in the mud"; if the child rebels, the father disciplines him, washes him, gives him clean clothes, and tells him that he loves him—and upon the child's repentance, confession and asking forgiveness, the child is restored to the father's good graces. But answer me this: Is the law against playing in the mud abolished because the child is forgiven? Of course not—but that is the anti-intellectual, anti-christ nonsense that the majority of "Christians" believe. God is Immutable and Holy and Perfect. He commanded, "Be holy as I am Holy". That Standard of Holiness for us cannot change, or we cannot be Holy as He is Holy and that Standard of Holiness for Him does not change because He is Immutable and Perfect. We are to bear His Image and Likeness and reflect His Glory. The Law is a sign that we are His children; not the lawless alien children who have crept into the neighborhood. Again, if you violate God's Law and He does not chasten you, you are not His son but a bastard!

Thus, to recap point number two, if God's people are in sin, but don't realize it because they believe that God abolished His Law (even though Christ Jesus said that He did not), they cannot repent because they don't realize that they are in sin; because they are in unrepentant, unconfessed sin, God will not hear their prayers, nor will He deliver them, but instead send them more of the evil that they lusted after as Judgment until it either kills them or they repent. This is the current fate of all of Christendom that hangs over us like the Sword of Damocles.

Thirdly, and finally as pertains to our discussion, this plan of the Third World invasion, multi-culturalism, homoperversion, and interfaith confusion has been implemented for a much higher reason. God promised to preserve a remnant—not of merely any people—but of His very people. If Satan can pollute all of God’s people to the point that no pure remnant exists (and Christ said unless God draws short those Days of Wrath, no flesh [that is the pure remnant] would survive) then God will have failed in His Promise. If God can fail in any one area, then theoretically He is not the PERFECT, OMNIPOTENT, OMNISCIENT, IMMUTABLE God that He declared Himself to be (and thus, He is not TRUE either).

If God thus fails to preserve a remnant, Satan will then take that one failure as hope that he can eventually defeat and dethrone God entirely; and thus he will renew with vigor his war against God. But for now, Satan knows if he can utterly mongrelize the bride of Christ, then Christ will have no bride to return to. Christ will not have a bride not of His Own Choosing (His own pure people) thrust upon Him. God will not entertain bastards in His Nursery or at His Table and “pretend” that they are His children (especially when some are the children of His sworn enemy). Biblical adoption is not bringing aliens into the family of God which God forbade. Biblical adoption pertaineth only to God’s people (whom He commanded to be separate from all other people, even commanding His people periodically to divorce all alien wives and send them and all children by them away forever). Biblical adoption or “son-placing” refers to a minor child coming of age to a place of responsibility and adulthood; or it refers to the re-instatement of a formerly disgraced son back into a place of honor (as Christ’s Parable of the Prodigal clearly portrays). Those who adopt aliens into their family help destroy Christendom—help pollute the bride of Christ; help murder God’s children. The fact that the “adoptive” parents “love” those children whom they adopted and brought into their family is utterly irrelevant. All those alien women whom God commanded His people to divorce, I have no doubt that those men who unlawfully married them, loved those alien women. I am certain that homosexuals and pedaphiles “love” people of their own gender and young children. Love beyond the boundaries that God established is not love, but sin. Just because you have become addicted to a sin because it is so powerful and just because you have engaged in it long term, God will not give you a “free pass” for rebellion and immorality. Those who refuse to repent and obey show that Christ and God is not their “Lord”. Lord means “sovereign, emperor, ruler, boss, master”—the one whom you obey; the one whom you worship and submit to. Those who do not submit to and obey God, God does not accept their worship and they do not love Him. Jesus said if you love Me keep My Commandments. Jesus said if you keep My Commandments ye shall abide in My Love even as I have kept My Father’s Commandments and abide in His Love. Jesus had no commandments of His own. He obeyed God’s and commanded us to obey them also.

Satan’s goal is to corrupt everything that God created. We see this plan in action with hybrid and GMO crops and animals (people don’t even know all the abominations that are taking place*¹)—and with all races—and all races did not descend from a common ancestor.*² Adam and Eve were the parents only of God’s people—the peoples of Christendom; and all races did not descend from Adam and Eve and neither did all races descend from Noah’s three sons.

[*¹ Moth genes are being spliced into tomatoes; pig genes into chickens; goats into salmon. They are playing Dr. Frankenstein. Highly toxic chemicals (Roundup) are being spliced into all the DNA food crops even though it has been proven that such chemicals cause tumors and all sorts of organ damage.

*² See: The Creation of Man in Genesis 1 and 2 and Kind Unto Kind.]

The Church of God has become the Harlot of Revelation, committing fornication with all the nations of the earth. What had been “a city set on a hill”—Christendom—has degenerated into Babylon (“confusion by mixing”). Communism teaches, “One race, one religion, one creed” (one world)—God commands, “Come out from among them and be ye separate”.

“Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils [demons], and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.” (Revelation 18:2)

That pretty much describes Christendom. It of course describes the rest of the world too; however, the difference is that the Third World nations have always been like that (except when under Colonial rule) but Christendom had not formerly been so polluted with hateful aliens. Christendom has only been reduced to such a state in the past few decades, in earnest; though it began 50 to 100 years ago by slow means in the importation of aliens and their corruption and pagan ways.

God is sending forth a flood of aliens as never before. We are seeing fulfilled before our very eyes (Revelation 12:15) the Dragon / Serpent vomiting forth a flood out of his mouth to drown the woman and her child (God's people). Revelation tells us that the waters upon which the harlot sits are peoples. Scripture also tells us,

“Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.” (Revelation 14:8)

Revelation 17:2; 18:3,9 also say that all the kings of the earth have committed fornication with this harlot (the Apostate Church). The kings, of course, lead their people to likewise.

The Book of Hebrews in the New Testament calls Esau a “fornicator and profane person”. What was his sin? He married two women outside the race—Canaanites whom God cursed. His descendents became the Edomites, the very worst enemies of God's people—and they still are to this day; except that they masquerade as if they are God's people themselves and they are the very ones who are spearheading the destruction of Christendom. Esau means, “red” and it is no coincidence that the Jewish Bolsheviks chose the name of “Reds”—and they painted Russia and Eastern Europe red with the blood of the saints of God—between 66 and 180 million they exterminated.* Esau's unlawful out-of-kind marriages define one type of fornication / adultery (adulteration). Also, the Greek word translated profane person actually means, “one who crosses a threshold”—and Esau did that, out of God's family into the family of God's enemies.

* See my, [A Bolshevik Primer. See also: The Human Cost of Soviet Communism and The Secret Holocaust.]

We are also seeing the fulfillment of the Last Kingdom of this earth as portrayed in the Book of Daniel in Nebuchadnezzar's vision of the Great Image, whose feet were made of iron mingled with clay—which represents integration. Every formerly great empire fell for the same reason (see Myron Fagan's booklet, How the Greatest White Nations... and professor Pendell's Why Civilizations Self-Destruct). Iron and clay are not cohesive. They cannot bond or hold together. The feet support the weight of the entire statue. Christ, in disgust of the evil degeneracy, will strike the feet, they will crumble, the statue will fall, and 6,000 years of history and civilization will come to an end. The wicked shall be judged, Satan and his demons shall be bound for 1,000 years, and Christ will establish the Millennial Kingdom of Peace here on earth.

Diversity is not our strength. It is a myth. It is a lie. It is communist, Antichrist propaganda. Diversity is our demise. Diversity is not recognized, let alone "championed" in any sane or moral area of life. Does a Kentucky Derby champion breeder breed common work horses, ponies, and donkeys into the bloodlines of his stock? Does a millionaire buy crappy stock along with sound stock? Does the builder of a skyscraper mix styrafoam, cork, straw, and dog poo into his concrete? Does anyone mix a little gasoline and propane into the fire extinguisher chemicals? Do movie producers hire crappy actors to act along side of the top dollar actors? Do battleship or fighterjet manufacturers mix wood and glass into the steel alloy? Does a surgeon mix a little bacteria and virus into the patient's incision before he sows him back up? The reprehensible odious lie of diversity being our strength is used as a mantra only to destroy us. No. Purity is our strength. Obedience to God is our strength. ALL of our nations were STRONG, safe, godly, moral, prosperous when we were the ONLY people in our nations; the only ones in charge; the overwhelming majority. The only way that this lie can be sustained is if people under the age of 50 don't have a clue what life was like in the early 1900s or earlier. Modern minds are perverted against the truth. If they were to watch an older black and white or early color t.v. sitcom or drama they would be bored to death—no sexual innuendoes, nudity, sexual promiscuity; no violent profanity, no wanton killing, detailed mutilations, terrorism; no corruption, scandalism, or propaganda as "business as usual no need to raise an eyebrow"; no insulting Christ or white people, no homoperverts and no aliens. THAT was prosperity, peace—LIFE! Those shows may not have been overtly Christian, even secular minded, but they were not perverse or antichristian.

[A few examples: Leave it to Beaver; Courtship of Eddy's Father; My Three Sons; Hazel; Gilligan's Island; Wild, Wild West, Black Sheep Squadron; Family Affair; Gunsmoke; Wanted Dead or Alive; Adam 12; Get Smart; Dennis the Menace; Lost in Space; Green Acres; Mr. Ed; Maybury RFD; the Beverly Hillbillies; Bonanza; and for younger children, Mr. Rogers and Captain Kangaroo. The cartoons were not perverse or violent either (The Jetsons; The Flintstones). THESE were the REAL America. Many more could be listed (that's just a few off the top of my head). This is how life was. Peaceful. Quiet. Respectful. Endearing. Moral. Safe. Clean. Homogeneous. Nonperverted. Incorrupt. Even the war, western, and police shows were quiet and moral in tone.]

Satan is trying to destroy God's people and has nearly succeeded. Christ said:

“And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh [of the elect] be saved [preserved, “survive”]: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened” (Matthew 24:22).

Christ rhetorically queried “when the Son of man cometh, shall He find faith on the earth?” (Luke 8:18)

Faith is not a free-floating phenomena. It exists solely within the elect of God's people. The implication of “will there be faith still upon the earth” is that it will come close to all of God's people being exterminated in the Dragon's last-ditch effort to destroy Christ's bride / God's children. Satan knows that his time is running short and that is why the invasion of the Third World and the homo-invasion has been kicked into warp speed. In fact, as I explained earlier, the antichrist world thinks that the worst evil of which a person can be guilty is holding faithfully to the traditional, moral Christian values that were the hallmark of Christendom for centuries—including racial purity and gender purity, without which, there would have been no Christendom. All that would have existed was the Third World chaos and oppression that now characterizes former Christendom, as well as the rest of the world. Christ even said, “yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service” (John 16:2).

We are the bargaining chips for the highest stakes gamble* in the history of the universe That is why the entire Third World is invading all of Christendom to destroy us: first by mongrelizing us out of existence and outright killing us in daily crime, which people with brainwashed minds consider “normal”—and eventually through outright mass genocide. The removing of Confederate and other monuments is a prelude to genocide: If our war dead don’t matter in our own nation—we don’t matter. It is blatant!

[* This analogy is used in a very limited sense. It is a gamble in Satan’s mind, for he has no other choice. It certainly is no gamble for God, who is Omnipotent and Omniscient and Who has determined all things and who is True and cannot fail.]

God commanded us to be separate from all other peoples. The children of Satan among us have subverted church and state and against the will of our nations, imported the Third World, by conspiracy, for 100 years slowly, until they gained critical mass; and now they are swamping our nations full force. We are a like a ship that has taken on so much water there is no way that it can be salvaged. It is going down. The aliens are not flooding our nation because they “want to learn of our God” or because they “love Jesus”. They are flocking as vultures following a dying animal ready to drop. They are flocking to the kill and to the feast.

God commanded us to be separate. Instead of obeying Him, not only have we not been separate, but we have helped the entire Third World to reproduce and done good unto them and sought their prosperity in violation of what God commanded. God commanded, “No other gods” and we have allowed the aliens to set up tens of thousands of pagan temples polluting our nation coast to coast.” And most “Christians” think it is their “right”. They are vomitous and that is what Christ shall do—spew them out of His Mouth showing they have no place in Him. The majority of “Christians” are joining with the enemy helping to destroy Christendom, helping to destroy God’s children. And most “Christians” think it’s wonderful to commit national suicide and let everything their ancestors labored centuries to build, to be turned over to the savages to be destroyed. How wonderful! Such Christians do not even know God and God does not know them.

Furthermore, in our nations, we have illegally, unconstitutionally, unbiblically allowed traitors at the helm of our government to declare aliens “equals” and have given them equal rights and allowed them to vote and be elected to public office and then, change our nations into the very kind of nation from which they fled! Yes, the alleged “refugees” and “assylum seekers” are such fools that instead of being content to be second class “guests” with no rights, but more priviledges and a better life than they had in their own nations—demand the right to destroy our nation and turn it into the very type of hell-hole from which they fled! Parasites are mindless. They feed off the host until it dies, with no thought of what they will do when there are no more hosts left. They will simply parasitize each other, as they have for millennia, before we opened our nations to them. We have glorified them and put them on a pedestal, so in essence, God has said to us, “You want aliens...? I’LL GIVE YOU ALIENS...!” The sinful Israelites lusted after meat (though they never repented of their sins and humbled themselves and simply asked God for meat—the problem was their attitude—they murmured, complained, mutinied, chided, mocked, and doubted). God then sent them quail 3-feet deep and 3-days’ journey on any side of their camp (imagine the noise, the frenetic flapping feathers stirring up dust and dander and feces)—and they ate so much, gorging themselves for weeks, that it came out their noses (probably from vomiting) and they soon loathed it! God is doing the same now to Christendom. Even as God told His sinful people 2,500 years ago, who also sinned by embracing the heathen and learning their ways, “²⁴Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. ²⁵Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.” (Ezekiel 7)

When will “Christians” realize that what they have been doing ain’t workin’! The world just grows more evil and evil and our once safe, peaceful, prosperous, moral, Christian nations become more violent, corrupt, antichristian, indebted, and perverse.

“Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.”

“The curse causeless shall not come.”

“Be sure your sin will find you out.”

Fools and conspirators will believe that the problem is anything other than the obvious thing. Disobedience to God...? nah, that can't be it. Maybe it is Global Warming, or Global Cooling; maybe it is our anti-perspirant? Maybe a monarch butterfly is flapping his wings too hard in Argentina? Maybe its voodoo. That is... that is the reaction of those who actually admit there is a problem. Many others, those deepest in delusion or in the conspiracy, think everything is just fine, and they think that the Titanic is the Queen Mary and the Love Boat rolled into one and we are having a 'Gay Old Time' and things have never been better and if all the previous centuries could see us they would be green with envy! But, if George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and our Founding Fathers who gave their all to give us freedom, met up with Abraham Lincoln, they would not give him a pat on the back, but a slap in the face before they put his head in a noose; and while his legs were dangling in the air one of them could have asked him, "So, Abe, ole buddy, tell us again, exactly how long should a man's legs be...?"

The majority of God's people say and do nothing; which is the sign of a dying creature with no will left to live*—and a sign that they are not of God; that they are spiritually dead.

[* The aliens themselves see this and even mock us publicly, telling us that they will take our nation from us since we are no longer men, have no will to fight or live, and say, "Don't worry, if you don't want to reproduce with your wives, we will take your wives and daughters and we will reproduce with them". And yet we say and do nothing. Politicians need to be FORCED to obey the Law—not what they have perverted it into, but what our Founders established it to be; and if they will not, they should be tried for High Treason. Politicians need IMMEDIATELY TO STOP ALL WELFARE. STOP ALL SUBSIDIES, GRANTS, AND GOVERNMENT FUNDING OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR. STOP ALL FOREIGN AID. EXECUTE ALL THIRD WORLD ALIENS WHO COMMIT CRIME IN OUR NATIONS and begin deporting all aliens, regardless how many generations were born here—there is no statute of limitations on fraud. They arrived by fraud and they were granted citizenship by fraud and by subversive politicians through subversive acts under "color of law" while supposedly "serving the nation"—and nothing they have done is lawful. Everything that they have done is void ab initio. No action, right, or obligation can arise out of fraud, conspiracy, or treason. That which is good cannot come from that which is evil. That which is lawful cannot come from that which is illegal. BRING ALL OUR TROOPS HOME FROM ALL FOREIGN NATIONS. Those things will be a good start. Next would be for Donald Trump to write one singular Executive Order—abolishing all previous and future Ex- ecutive Orders. Then, liquidate 95% of all government departments, offices, jobs, and services. Restore the Puritan Work Ethic and the Principles of the Reformation upon which this nation was founded.

“Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” (Proverbs 14:34)

“When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.” (Proverbs 29:2)

Joseph de Maistre expressed,

“Every nation has the government that it deserves”.

You reap what you sow. If God’s people in Christendom want a righteous government—they themselves first have to repent before God, confess their sins, and obey what God commanded.]

God has sent strong delusion so that those claiming to be “Christians” believe a lie. God has sent a spirit of fear and cowardice so that they do nothing—deludedly thinking there is a rapture,* when there is not. If people on a sinking ship or on a desert island realize that there is no rescue ship coming, or if a small platoon on a hill, with the enemy advancing, realize that the extraction helicopter is not coming, they certainly will act differently. Christians need to wake up. God requires faithfulness and obedience.

* See my, [A Futurist and Rapture Conspiracy.]

God is separating the chaff from His wheat and this is the final winnowing process. God is culling His flock, killing off the diseased of His herd (and all stray animals that do not bear His Brand) until the only ones who are left are those who are repenting. Some may think that is “unfair”. Think whatever you like, it does not change reality. God did not consult you when He ordered His universe after the Counsel of His Own Will and for His Own Good Pleasure.

“The earth is the Lord’s and the fulness thereof, the world and all they who dwell therein.”

“All the souls are Mine.”

Reality operates upon God’s terms. Man can believe whatever deluded notion that he wishes to believe, but it does not change reality. God is Supreme. He is Master of His universe, and none can resist Him. He has ordered all things and they are sure—they are reality and all things have actually already happened just as He determined; it just takes us, in our time and space, a little while to catch up with reality.

Why should God deliver us from what we are willing to tolerate? Now, if God has a plan to save peoples other than His own—it certainly will not include those who are invading Christendom attempting to destroy us and take our nations from us, attempting to breed God’s people out of existence, perpetrating genocide by murder or intermarriage upon God’s people.

“the Kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.” (Matthew 11:12)

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.” (John 10:1)

God will rouse Himself as a Lion to defend us and He says so in quite graphic language (see Isaiah 34). Christ is returning, not to “secretly spirit us away”—but as a Lion to avenge and deliver His bride and to destroy the wicked. The only hope that anyone has is to repent of his sins* and throw himself upon the Mercy of the High Court of Heaven. No one has any say in their own birth or who their ancestors were. God decides all. Even if you are outside God’s Covenant and not His people, your only hope is submitting to Him and the role in which He placed you, turn from your sins, confess your sins, ask God to forgive you—not join with the rest of the baboons trying to rape, pillage, murder, and overthrow Christendom. If you don’t denounce them publicly, then you support them. Silence is construed as consent. When it is on such a paramount moral issue, there is no forgiveness for silence.

[* —which actually entails knowing what sin is. Sin hasn’t changed; it’s recorded clearly in the first 5 books of the Bible; which were not abolished. Repentance isn’t “a warm fuzzy feeling” any more than having warm fuzzy feelings about paying your monthly bills replaces actually paying them. There can be no repentance without knowing what you are repenting of—actually repenting of it, confessing it, asking for forgiveness, and then beginning to do what was commanded. Those who are forgiven are to “Go and sin no more”.]

However, there is a breath of hope.

God promised that, at some point in time after the Dragon / Serpent has spewed forth a flood to drown the woman and her child (God’s true people) that He would cause the earth to help the woman and cause the earth to receive the flood. This does not mean that God will remove every last wicked person. Imagine a toilet overflowing. The immediate need is to contain the excess and stop the overflow. It will be like the eye of the storm; a brief respite until the onslaught of the final fury. How will God do this?

First of all, God will not do it until enough of His people repent of their sins—and their chiefest sin is thinking that they are not guilty before God and that everyone else is the problem. They think that because they don't murder anyone that God has no reason to be mad at them. However, there are sins of omission and sins of commission. To leave undone what God commanded to be done is just as much sin as to do what He forbade. To see others around you sinning and to say nothing makes you an accomplice in their sin. Sinful "Christians" choose not to comprehend this. "Christians" need to stop trying to think with their carnal minds as if they created the universe, and read, accept, and remember that God makes all the rules and things are as He has decreed them to be, not as humans wish them to be. Man imagines that just because he does not think that a law of God "seems" necessary to man in his ignorance (such as the dietary laws or the Sabbath) that therefore those laws are not important and don't count. Christ said not one jot or tittle (what part of that do "Christians" not understand?); to think otherwise is antichrist. To think otherwise shows that you don't know Christ's Voice. Christ, God cannot lie and cannot "change His Mind" and cannot contradict Himself. "I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed" (Malachi 3:6). The specific context is that God will not violate His Covenant and utterly forsake His sinful people—and His Law is part of that Covenant! not for salvation, but the Moral Standard that sets us apart as His people! But those who refuse to obey show they are not regenerate, and are unconverted (though they think that they are "Christians")—and it is those whom God will cull out of His flock.

Man's mind needs to be renewed. Most Christians have no concept of the HOLINESS of God. Most Christians are carnal and think egocentrically; not from God's perspective. The average person thinks that he is healthy because he compares himself to those who are sicker than himself, not to those who are more healthy—and certainly not to an Olympic athlete. Christians do this in regard to sin also. It is easy in today’s polluted society to find someone more sinful to which to compare yourself. But that is not what God does and that is not a fair assessment. God will not judge on the Bell Curve. The Standard to which God commanded that we compare ourselves is His Law and Christ Who kept it in every single point: Who was tempted in all areas even as we are—yet without sin. God said that when we commit certain sins, and do things that He forbade (such as eating unclean animals, joining with unclean—that is “alien” people, commit fornication, adultery, homo-perversion) we pollute ourselves and defile ourselves. And what does God say that He will do to such?—

“If any man defile the temple of God, Him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.” (I Corinthians 3:17)

God will not join Himself to one who is defiled or polluted, because He is Holy. He will not cleanse those who wallow in the mire (feces and urine) of the pig-stye and refuse to repent, who deludedly think it is chocolate pudding. Such will be cast into everlasting fire. God is Holy. God is Sovereign. Man’s only valid response is to submit to God and repent of violating what He forbade. To do otherwise shows that His Spirit is not in such a person. If truly converted, the Holy Spirit renews the mind and gives the desire and power to obey God. “Walk in the Spirit and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh”. What are the lusts of the flesh? —the violation of all that God commanded. “Thou shalt not!” and “This shalt thou do”... “This is the Way, walk ye in it”.

Repentance entails turning from what God forbade, confessing sin, asking for forgiveness, and then turning to do what was commanded. Anything less is a humanistic pseudo-spiritual delusion. Works do not save; they are the by-product of salvation. If there are no works, no obedience to what God commanded (which Christ also called “fruit”) in a person’s life, there is no Divine Life in such a person. Where no fruit is evident the Holy Spirit is not Resident. The Ten Commandments are not merely 10 individual laws, but 10 Categories of law under which the entire Law of God is organized. The Law was not abolished; rather, “Christians” subconsciously think that they abolished God. With the spirit of Jezebel, as women modernly divorce their husbands (something not permitted in God’s Word), thinking that they are then “free” of his authority, so also have modern “Christians” divorced Christ, thinking that they are free from His Law. If a woman has been divorced from her husband, she is free to marry again—but she can never return to that divorced husband, even if the current husband died. God calls that an abomination. If the woman is not lawfully divorced, but living in whoredom, she can repent and her husband forgive and receive her again; but for a woman to continue casually in whoredom thinking that her husband is there as a golden parachute to take her back once she has destroyed her life, being oblivious to her destroying his life too, shows utter depravity and unregeneracy of mind and it is quite possible that she will never repent because she is not of God. So it is with most Christians. Every tree is known by its fruit—what it currently and consistently bears; not the fruit that it “plans on”, “one day”, “some time in the future”, bearing—entertaining fantasies of future repentance. If there is no repentance, the Pearl of Great Price is esteemed to be a piece of garbage. God has sent such delusion so that a person does not repent. God clearly declared that He has blinded the eyes, shut the ears, hearts, and minds, and stiffened the necks of all so that they would not see, hear, believe, repent, or be saved—and God opens only the ears, eyes, hearts, and minds of the elect of His people to repent and believe unto salvation.

[See my Ten Commandments for Youth, What’s Keeping God From Delivering America, Britain, and Europe from Destruction?, So, You Call Yourself A Christian..., and Calling the Remnant of Christendom...; Kind Unto Kind, Races in Chaos, and my Sacred Truth Expository Commentary series and Apologetic Exposition series which clear up nearly every “contradiction” people think are in the Scriptures. Does God Repent? and Uncovering the Mysteries... are also foundational. Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free. When you finally realize that you’ve been on the wrong road and that you are lost, it’s time to get back on the right road—especially since the road that you are on has a washed-out bridge (with a 100 foot drop to the canyon below) up ahead and visibility is about 40 feet due to heavy fog and you are travelling at 70 mph.]

Finally, God will cause the earth to receive the excess of this Satanic Third-World flood, this mud tsunami, once His repentant

people actually ask Him to. Again, why should God deliver us from what we are willing to tolerate? God commanded us to hate evil. Those who refuse to will die by the hand of the very evil they refused to hate as God commanded. Every single day, many times a day, for about 5 years now, I have prayed and continue to pray:

“God pour out Your Holy Spirit upon Your people and convict them with the knowledge of sin and their utter guilt; grant them the Spirit of repentance so that You can hear their prayers—and pour out Your Wrath and send a pestilence on the rest. You created the vessels of wrath to destroy them, and You made all things for Yourself, for Your own Purpose and Your Own Good Pleasure, even the wicked for the Day of Evil (Judgment). So please fulfill their purpose. Destroy them, for they are polluting the world and destroying Your people. Pour out Your Wrath and send a pestilence upon all those who are not Your people, upon all those who hate You, upon all those who hate Your children, upon all those trying to destroy Your people and steal and pollute Christendom: the antichrists, aliens, mingled people, the homoperverts, the evolutionists, the atheists, the corrupt politicians and Big Business and wealthy oligarchs. Give me at least the firstfruits of my prayers of faith claiming the Promises of Your Word. If any of those vile people can repent and be converted, then please convert them and put Your fear in them to accept the reality and the morality that you decreed and the role that You established for them; but if not, then destroy them from off the face of the world forever—they and their entire families if they are evil and hate You and are not ordained unto life. Blot out their memory from under Heaven.”

Christ said, “If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything, it shall be done of My Father Who is in Heaven”. Does anyone agree with me? Let me know. How can two be in agreement as pertains to this Promise unless they know that they are in agreement? They cannot. God calls us to concerted, united prayer.

Understand, all the evil that has befallen Christendom did not happen overnight; even as someone who finds out that he has cancer should realize that the cancer did not magically invade his body overnight. Long-term sin bears long-term consequences. A garden overgrown with weeds, neglected for years, will not de-weed itself, and won't be weeded in a day (and the roots and seeds of the weeds will continue to come up even after they appear to have been uprooted). Thus, Christ also gave the parable of the woman before the unjust judge. It is not that God does not hear our prayers, but the more-precious things that we desire take dedication and perseverance; the powers of darkness need to be rebuked; and most importantly, we need to continue in faith to demonstrate single-mindedness, like Jacob who clung to Christ, declared, "I cannot let Thee go except Thou bless me". Those who offer a few casual prayers and go on about their merry life have not been touched and are still clueless. This is a matter of life or death for all of Christendom—of all civilization and freedom: life itself. Those who care will stop watching a bunch of alien criminals play with a ball; stop watching movies and t.v. and stop listening to music that blasphemes God and glorifies man and glorifies perversion—which is nearly 100% of everything that the secular world has to offer. Stop supporting athletes and celebrities who are antichrists, perverts, criminals, socialists, and destroyers of Christendom who support antichrist causes with the money you give them. You cannot simply "ignore" or "overlook" the filth that they produce, deceiving yourself that they have a few good songs, or some merit in their movie, or are good athletes—you support their immoral lifestyle and immoral agenda and participate in their blasphemy and wickedness by watching and supporting them. God will not hear prayers from such a heart. God will only hear the prayers from His child who realizes that all such filth is a moral sewer and an affront to a Holy God and that such filth has no place in the life of a child of God. God will only hear the prayers from His child who eschews evil and repents of sin and clings to the horns of the altar and will not let go until delivered or until he expires there.

Understand, the enemy has so overpopulated their own nations as a result of our sin, that their own nations (without a good famine or tribal war) cannot contain them. God forbade us to love or help those who hate Him—even if our very brethren. God said if we even bid "God speed" (any well wish or blessing) to our kinsmen who reject Christ and true doctrine (which teaches that the way we show our love to God is by obeying all that He commanded) that we are partakers in their evil! How much greater then, in God's Eyes, is our sin of helping aliens and savages and antichrists whom God forbade us to have any dealings? One of the godliest kings of Judah, Josiah, died because he ignored God's Commands—and even the direct word of Pharaoh himself, who spoke what God ordained for him to speak (II Chronicles 35:21); when Josiah went out against Pharaoh and his army in a fight that did not involve him; when Pharaoh went to war against Carchemish in Syria.

God said that we were not to intermarry with aliens—neither are we to fellowship with them. God commanded us to be separate and forbade us to seek their peace or prosperity forever!—what does that leave room for? That pretty much covers everything. God forbade us to make treaties with them. God commanded, “No other gods”. God commanded us to be separate. Yet we allowed our corrupt, treasonous politicians to send our money (hundreds of billions of dollars) to help over 100 antichrist alien nations, annually, and help them additionally during so-called “natural” disasters, famine, drought, disease, and we have even sent them military weapons and sent our men to die on their soil fighting their wars for them. Because we did all this—“Shouldest thou help the ungodly and do good unto them that hate the Lord, therefore there is Wrath upon you from before the Lord”—we sinned against God and upset the natural balance that God instituted in nature. Because of our sin (“you reap what you sow”) these alien peoples have so prospered that they have overpopulated their own nations and now are flooding into ours to take ours from us and even on their way in they are raping and killing, vandalizing, looting, and leaving a trail of garbage a thousand miles long. The corrupt treasonous politicians and mindless or conspiratorial liberals parrot the idiotic mantra that “we are all immigrants from somewhere” and “they have just as much right as we do” — and all such notions are LIES. No. All immigrants are not the same. No. Aliens have no right to our nations. No. Disease does not have just as much right to my body as the healthy cells. Everything these subverters of Christendom speak is a lie. Stop listening to them. Arrest them and try and convict and sentence them for High Treason and if you still have the will to live then fight, like a trout in the water trying to dislodge a parasite; fight like a bull not laying down for the pack of wolves. God commanded,

“Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but rebuke them!”

“he that knoweth to do good* and doeth it not to him it is sin.”

[* Goodness is defined by God in His Word—not by the perverse notions of godless men. Christ said that on the Day of Judgment, many “Christians” who thought that they were doing “wonderful works” in Christ’s name will hear— “Depart from Me ye that work lawlessness I never knew you”.]

“Whatsoever is not of faith is sin.”

[Faith is not a “good feeling” or an “imagination” subjective to each individual. Faith is based upon the facts, the Doctrine, the Commands of the Word of God. Anything less is humanism.]

“He that does not provide for his own house has denied the faith and is worse than an infidel.”

Christ commanded, “Occupy till I come”. In this parable Christ uses a Greek word translated occupy that means, “busy yourself”. With what are we to busy ourselves? —obeying all that God commanded, seeking out the lost sheep, while having no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but rebuking them! even as Christ would! In order to be about our Father’s Business until Christ returns, there is one thing that the remnant has to do first—survive!

Why should God deliver us from what we are willing to tolerate? Why should God deliver us from evil if we don’t hate it as He commanded? —if we are content to tolerate it, ignore it, look the other way, accept it as part of our family, hold hands with it. You do not hate evil if you say, like so many mindless, emotionally confused, anti-intellectual “Christians” might say to someone who is homopervert, “I love you, but I cannot have fellowship with you. I wish you all the best”. One Christian woman who made the news, who had a florist shop, would not arrange the flowers for the wedding for a homopervert customer to whom she had sold flowers for many years. She even gave him a hug and cried and wished him all the best and happiness! This woman does not love Christ, because she does not know Christ; because she loves evil, but understands on some level that she cannot fellowship with it. Love is not hate.

“Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.” (James 4:4)

We have been outnumbered in our own nations in the English and Celtic speaking world—and the rest of Christendom in Europe is taking on water from the flood far faster than we did. We are less than 10% here in the U.S. Anyone who does not realize that has his head in the sand or does not realize the difference between a horse, a mule, a donkey, or a warthog. The media has been brainwashing our people for at least 75 years. Initially, they “cherry picked” lighter-colored mixed-blooded individuals who had more-refined features and used them in advertisements, movies, commercials, billboards, sitcoms, tv shows, news shows, comic books, literature illustrations, etc.—and then eventually plastered blatant pictures of aliens and a myriad of crosses and mixed marriages or couples (even now with homoperverts) all over society where you cannot even turn around in public (or on the internet) without seeing aliens and unidentifiable crosses or perverts on every box of cereal, advertisements for water, gasoline, hamburgers, computers, diapers—anything! The brainwashing has been so continual and replete and so successful that the average person thinks that mixed-blooded, pasty mocha, wire-haired people are Caucasian. Most blacks probably think if you are not as dark as Idi Amin then you are white (that seems to be the only explanation, since Hispanics, Jews, Iraqis, Iranians, Syrians, Greeks, Hindus, Turks, Arabs and all possible crosses are usually lumped together as “white”: “Brown, it’s the new white”).

No one has a choice to whom he is born or what race he is—but all can submit to God’s Plan and not be part of the flood that is trying to destroy Christendom (—including by amalgamation, integration). God said that He set the bounds of the people. All do not descend from Adam (the Hebrew word Adam means, “to turn rosy, to flush, blush, show blood in the face”; Sarah was fair; Abraham’s cousin Laban’s name means “white”; David and his sons were ruddy and fair). God forbade his people to marry outside the race and commanded complete segregation—the only aliens in the Land of Israel during the period of the kings were those Canaanites whom the Israelites had not been able to (or did not bother to) drive out. Multiculturalism is Antichrist. It is Babylon. It is confusion. It is an abomination. Christians who embrace it are not of God.

The problem is so overwhelming that most people cannot deal with it and shut down and live in denial. The problem is a global racial tsunami of unprecedented proportions, 150 feet tall, travelling at 500 mph, 3,000 miles wide, heading straight for Christendom. The problem is that several hundred million hyenas and vultures are hastening to the kill, but is compounded by the fact that several hundred million others are already here! How do you prevent the gates being opened to the millions of barbarians on the outside when there are millions of barbarians on the inside fighting you to open the gates? Christendom is the Alamo and Custer's Last Stand rolled into one—and most Christians think that the savages will honor the rules of civilized warfare and that God wants us to love them! We are completely outnumbered. The majority of our own people are brainwashed and will side with the enemy; no one can even tell whom he can trust. The majority of our people would crucify Christ again if He returned meekly as a lamb and again began teaching Doctrine and speaking against evil. But He is not going to return as a lamb but as a Lion. And He will not return for a rebellious bride unwilling to submit herself to His Rule. Such will be shut out of the Kingdom. Christ will declare to the holy angels upon His Return, “Bring all those Mine enemies who would not that I rule over them and slay them before Me”. God's people need to realize the extent of the situation and be shaken free from their selfish delusion, slumber, day dream, fantasy—and like the Prodigal, realize that he is face down in the feces, having been brought so low that all he can do is look up in repentance and shame and cry out for deliverance. The problem is so gargantuan that it dwarfs any who step out of the matrix and actually try to look at reality.

The only thing that can deliver us is a pestilence—of Bubonic proportions, like that which devastated Europe, killing 2/3 of the entire population from the Black Death; and which also ravaged Asia. We cannot defend ourselves from such overwhelming numbers of aliens—but God can send a pestilence in a wave, as He often did in the Old Testament. God is in complete control of every single electron in the universe. He preserved Daniel in the lion's den. He preserved Noah and his family in the ark. He preserved the Israelites in the Land of Goshen while the plagues fell on and devastated Egypt all around them. He preserved Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael in the fiery furnace—and they had not even the smell of smoke upon them; although the guards who escorted them to the top entrance to the furnace died from the heat. God preserved those Israelites amidst the waves of pestilence in the Old Testament in the wilderness, while the wicked were taken in death—and Aaron who made atonement stood between the living and the dead!

[Again, there is no rapture. If you think that you have a “Rapture ticket”, sell it and buy my The Futurist and Rapture Conspiracy, and learn what the Bible says. As in the days of Noah, so shall it be when the Son of man returns. Noah didn’t go anywhere. The wicked were outside the ark, “and the flood came and took them all away”. God shall not suffer the righteous to be moved. Occupy till I come (which we cannot do if we are not here). As in the days of Noah—eating, drinking, marrying... there is nothing wrong with those activities, so clearly they were eating, drinking, marrying in complete violation of all the boundaries that God had established and all that He had commanded. The majority of modern “Christians” will fit right in! Here comes the flood! But it won’t be water. Water would be more merciful.]

God can preserve His people through a pestilence like the Black Death—but He will not preserve those of His people who refuse to come out from among them and be separate; He will not preserve those who love the wicked world and who want to be friends with it. He will not preserve those fools—those preachers and evangelists and pastors who are pastoring the swine and the dogs in among the flock of God! God will not preserve those wicked pastors who encourage the Master’s children to breed on top of the table with the dogs, thinking that the Master will be so pleased when He returns. God will not preserve those wicked preachers and teachers and those who follow them, the blind leading the blind, who think that we are supposed to try to “witness to” and “evangelize” the flood that the Dragon / Serpent has spewed out of his mouth to destroy us. God commanded us to be separate; not to love His enemies, not to love those who are not His people who are trying to destroy us. God will preserve those who repent of their sin, turn from it, and turn to obedience to God and ask God to save His people and send a pestilence on the rest.

A pestilence would be the earth helping the woman to receive the flood. How so? When God sends a pestilence most often He works through the natural laws of the universe on planet earth that He decreed. The disease will come from the earth itself. In a pestilence, many thousands, millions will drop. Their carcasses rot, are eaten by vultures, vermin, scavengers, insects. The scavengers then poop out the remains, it rains; the poop is absorbed by the earth. Mystery solved. God send a pestilence. Pour out Your Holy Spirit and bring Your people to repentance... bring every last person on earth to repentance too, if that is Your Will; but send a pestilence on the wicked whom you have not ordained unto life—and make it a good one and please make haste and send it now so not one single more of Your children will be assaulted, raped, murdered, homoperverted, evolutionized, atheized, demoralized, communized, mongrelized, and turned against You! Save our family! We ask in Christ Jesus, Yehoshua's Name!

Here is the Pestilence Psalm to go with the Pestilence Prayer (about 6 pages back):

Psalm 91

¹He that dwelleth in the Secret Place [obedience] of the Most High shall abide under the Shadow of the Almighty.

²I will say of the LORD, He is my Refuge and my Fortress: my God; in Him will I trust.

³Surely He shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

⁴He shall cover thee with His Feathers, and under His Wings shalt thou trust: His Truth shall be thy Shield and Buckler.

⁵Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

⁶*Nor* for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

⁷A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

⁸Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

⁹Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my Refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;

¹⁰There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

¹¹For He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

¹²They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

¹³Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

¹⁴[Saith the Lord] Because he hath set his love upon Me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known My Name.

¹⁵He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

¹⁶With long life will I satisfy him, and show him My salvation.”

Prayer is not a magical incantation to be chanted—it is talking to, communicating with God. Bible passages like Psalm 91 or the Lord’s Prayer are not magical incantations to be chanted—they are literal Promises that God has given to us that we are to believe and claim!

“Prepare to meet thy God.” (Amos 4:12)

The only preparation is complete repentance. God commanded us how to live and informed us of all the blessings of obedience and all the curses for disobedience, rebellion, “doing your own thing”, “being a free spirit”, “expressing your individualism”, “just being you”.

[See Appendix B.]

Come out! Separate yourself. Repent. Join with me in New Goshen. Pray for God to send His Holy Spirit upon His people to convict them and bring them to repentance and send a pestilence on all the rest! —corrupt politicians and their handlers especially, but with a healthy dose of lingering, unimaginable suffering.

⁴And I heard another voice from Heaven, saying, ‘Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. ⁵For her sins have reached unto Heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. ⁶Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double* unto her double* according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.’ (Revelation 18) [* is that quadruple? —works for me!]

stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; ²⁶Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. ²⁷And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with Power and great glory. ²⁸And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." (Luke 21)

Before the Appendices, in keeping with our Swiss theme with which we started (and I have a goodly amount of prominent Swiss blood from my Pennsylvania Dutch ancestors), I now present two pages from a book that I reprinted several years ago by one of Switzerland's most-famous sons: Huldreich Zwingli. God raised up Zwingli, in Switzerland, at the same time that He raised up Martin Luther (a cousin of mine) in Germany. Zwingli and Luther were both incredible men and anyone who cares about Christendom must read of the lives and doctrine of the Reformers. We have lost the true Reformed faith because its history and doctrine and the Reformers are no longer taught. Thus, since the majority of "Christians" have never heard true doctrine (and when they hear it, they will resist it) and mainstream "Christianity" has been so perverted there is hardly a drop of true Doctrine left in the toxic ecumenical homeopathic spiritual slushee that is served up by the modern church and its authors. See also my [Does God Repent? which gives the history and doctrine and exposes the modern errors.] We have lost freedom itself, since the history and doctrine of the American Revolution is no longer taught (public schools begin teaching U.S. history at the Civil War—teaching them of subjugation and the All-Powerful Federalist State and how to be good slaves; ironically, merely trading one form of slavery for another with the addition of real oppression). Even 25 years ago it was reported from a survey that more children recognized the face of Freddy Kruger (a criminal in a slasher-horror movie) than George Washington. Furthermore, our Founders and the Puritans are denigrated as gun-toting, racist, fearful, rapacious haters. THAT is a HATE CRIME. Without actually knowing the details of our precious heritage, our faith, and form of government—and all that it cost to secure it for us, there is no way that it can be truly appreciated, and therefore, there is no way that it can be preserved.

“Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die...” (Revelation 3:2)

“Where there is no vision, the people perish...” (Proverbs 29:18)

Switzerland was not ruled by a central government (the way that the U.S. was supposed to be—independent states) but consisted of autonomous cantons. Zwingli had been called by one of the most prominent cantons, Zurich, to be its pastor. He then slowly and tactfully opposed all false Romanist teaching and superstitions. The papacy and its paid instigators stirred up trouble against Zwingli, and it eventually came to a head in a military attack. Zwingli, before he was fully converted in his own mind, had actually been forced to serve as chaplain in the pope's mercenary wars utilizing Swiss armies, because the Swiss revered him, even as a young scholar and minister. Zwingli eventually repented of that and preached against mercenary involvement in other nations' wars—especially the papacy's. And thus we enter this short narrative:

All the cantons made a league against Zurich except Bern. The threats of war were about to be fulfilled; and the papal cantons fearing that they would not have force enough to cope with the brave Zurichers, made an alliance with Austria by which the latter would furnish troop and horse, if needful.

This brought on the “First war of Cappel.” All the cantons were in a state of confusion, and in certain parts violence was used against the Reformed. A minister of the Gospel named James Keyser, while on his way to a preaching .appointment, was seized as he was passing through a piece of forest, hurried off to the canton of Schwitz, and burned at the stake. This aroused Zwingli. The Romanists were already recruiting soldiers at Zug, ostensibly with the object of attacking Zurich. Zwingli said it was time to arise for defence. Recruiting began in Zurich; and when the men were ready to issue forth in defence of their rights, Zwingli brought out his old armor that he had worn during the campaigns in Italy, and went forth with them.

The little army of Zurich took its way over the Albis, and came to a halt at Cappel, within its own territory. The army of Zug advanced to meet them; and when it seemed certain that blood must be shed, negotiations were undertaken, which resulted favorably; and on June 26th, 1529, while the two armies confronted each other a treaty was formed, and war was averted. The conditions were that the Gospel should be preached freely throughout the whole confederacy; that all alliances against it should be null and void; that the images should be left to the choice of the people; the five cantons were to pay the expense of the war; and Schwitz should pay a thousand florins to the children of the martyred Keyser.

The soldiers, now rejoiced, and fraternized, ate and drank together, and said we are all Swiss, we are brethren. Thankful that for the present at least, war was averted, Zwingli returned to his home; but he still had fears that at some future time when they should be better prepared the papal cantons would renew the attack; and his fears were to be sadly realized.

Appendix A

By the way, the so-called U.S. “National Debt” is not the debt of the nation or the legitimate people; it is the individual debt of corrupt politicians who illegally took the people’s credit card and went on a weekend spending spree that lasted 100 years and they are still going—spending unconstitutionally, without authorization, and thus each expenditure is a crime and their personal debt; and it is the personal debt of all their accomplices to whom they have given disbursements: foreign governments, third world aliens and their illegitimate offspring in this nation, farmers who have been fooled into taking subsidies, people living on welfare, government grants, unpaid loans, all government employees, businesses that accept government funding, etc., all of whom think that they are getting a “free ride”. No. That “national” debt is theirs.

Regardless, the debt can never be paid off because it does not exist. Nothing of real substance was loaned, therefore, nothing of real substance needs to be repaid. Furthermore, even if it was real (and not a criminal act of fraud—and no action or obligation arises out of fraud) it could not be paid off. When the so-called “National” debt of the U.S. was $20 TRILLION, I did the calculations and the math and $20 TRILLION in $1 Eisenhower coins (which were popular in the 70s) would reach to the moon in not just 1 stack, but in 100 stacks. $1 TRILLION more, as the debt now approaches $21 TRILLION, I imagine that makes 5 more stacks. Those coins, in order to have any real value, are supposed to be SILVER (which they are not; corrupt politicians continued to rob our currency of all real precious metal, to enrich themselves and hide their fraud). Tell me, do you think that there is enough silver on planet earth to mint that many coins that would reach to the moon in 105 stacks? If those 105 stacks of coins were 99.9% silver (as the Constitution requires them to be), then with silver today at $15.35 / oz. would constitute “only” 6.84 stacks to the moon. While that is significantly less, do you think that much silver exists on earth? (keep in mind, this is just the pseudo-National Debt of the U.S., all the other nations are in similar debt). Realize that the 29,029 foot-high (nearly 5.5 miles) Mount Everest (which currently grows far slower than the “National” debt) is barely a pimple on the surface of the globe! It is 238,900 miles (1.26 billion feet / 15.143 billion inches, rounded off) from the earth to the moon (one single, one-way trip). The earth is 24,901 miles in circumference. The earth's core is molten magma and 3/4 of the surface is covered with water. We know that precious metals are called "precious" metals, because they are not common. All the gold that has ever been refined on earth would only constitute a solid cube of 65.5 feet on each side which would fill 60 tractor trailer trucks; or 152,000 metric tons (35,274 ounces in a metric ton). Do you really think that there is enough gold and silver on earth to reach to the moon in 6.84 stacks of .999 pure coin? However, the international bankers did not loan silver or gold—they don't have that much.

The combined alleged world debt is reputed to be $63 TRILLION dollars (a full three times the alleged, spurious, mythical so-called, U.S. "National" Debt). Tell me this, if there is not enough gold and silver in existence to reach to the moon in 20.52 stacks (for the so-called "world" debt) how was that much wealth actually loaned to anyone? Now, if this is not enough to get people thinking, then realize that these so-called "National" debts do not include the individual debts of persons in those nations. The estimated personal debt of individuals (not counting the so-called "National" debts) in the U.S. in just credit cards alone is over $1.3 TRILLION. It is estimated that the average U.S. household (whatever number that means) carries $137,000 in debt (and the median household annual income is just $59,039 / year and all taxes around 50% and about 3% inflation / devaluation of the dollar—and on top of that add the "interest" in that $137,000 debt). Out of about 320 million persons in the U.S., if we divide by 8 and consider only 40 million "households" that amounts to $5.5 TRILLION dollars. One statistic says that there are 126.22 million households in the U.S. (quite high in my opinion). That means a total of $16.5 TRILLION of personal debt (3 times higher than my conservative estimate). The same figures are most probably to be found in other nations.

The antichrist, communist element that has taken over the mind and soul of the nations of Christendom has certainly trained its slaves to be good slaves and think only of "bondage" (even affectionately, as the only natural and normal mode of life) and never about *freedom. The average person does not even have a clue about what freedom actually is—and they think that they are free. They must think that “freedom” means being able to choose whether to eat at McDonalds or Burger King for dinner. They don’t realize what freedom was in the 1700s, 1800s. No overbearing government. No bureaucracy. No endless laws, regulations, fines. No income tax (which did not exist until 1861*—and even then it was a pittance). The average person is trained from childhood to bury himself in such vast amounts of personal debt, to the point he will never see the light of day. When you are buried alive by such massive personal debt, there is no room in the cramped brain, about to shut down from stress overload, to even begin to think about the so-called “national” debt or the loss of freedom or the invasion of the Third World. Corrupt politicians continue to raise taxes and at the same time counterfeit (that’s what the government does) more money, making the little bit of money that people actually have become worth less and less (when the government counterfeits, printing more worthless paper and coining more worthless coin it devalues the money that you have; it is a hidden “tax”, if it can be called that—in reality it is outright theft; even as if you backed a truck up to someone’s house and took 3% of what they own; or hacked into their bank account and took 3%, or picked their pocket and took 3% from their wallet—every year).

[* Thanks to the Civil War which enslaved everyone. But it was only 3% on incomes over $800; which today would mean incomes over $52,600.]

If that is not bad enough the politicians spend more and more and throw massive amounts of U.S. taxpayer money (or rather, money that does not exist that will just be added to the so-called U.S. “National” debt) around the globe as if it was confetti and it was New Year’s Day. The U.S. dollar today is worth .03 cents of what it was in 1910. The coins were stripped of nearly all value decades ago; it almost costs more to mint each coin than the small value of real precious or semi-precious metal that they contain (which is called waste—so just “put it on the tab”). So, add this $5.5 TRILLION (my highly conservative) estimate of personal debt in the U.S. and triple it to reflect the likely personal world debt, and we arrive at about another 5 stacks of gold / silver coin to the moon. Does anyone not see the fraud? How can anyone have actually “loaned” to individuals and governments about $80 TRILLION dollars that do not exist and never did...? Answer me then: Can people be expected morally to pay back something that never existed and that was never loaned? Can people be expected morally to pay back a debt for services they never requested or received? Can anyone lawfully bill you for a meal at a restaurant that you neither ordered nor ate? — that’s what corrupt politicians do. Who are the corrupt politicians? —all of them! paying themselves salaries, health care, other benefits, expense accounts, and pensions fit for royalty, while they stick the people with debt for services never rendered and services that are Constitutionally illegal for the government to be involved in— while tossing money around to aliens as if candy at a circus. The only lawful expenditure of U.S. taxpayer money is to pay for services to those very taxpayers themselves (and to no one else) for services that they actually want and cannot provide for themselves (like national defense and the nation’s roads and bridges). Everything else is the job of the private sector (including insurance and pensions, if people want them) and for the government to encroach into the private sector is a criminal act on the part of the politicians.

How can people be expected to act like financial supermen and violate the laws of physics and reality in order to pay “back” something that was never loaned and does not even exist? Even if men could function as economic superheroes—there is no reason to because the entire “National” debt is based upon a cluster of frauds! Understand, so-called “National” Debts are one of the powerful tools used to cripple nations into submission; to cripple them to the point that they collapse and fall; and then the vultures take over, after the national carcass can’t even muster the strength to fight the vultures off and die in peace.

[Hint: The modern term “developing nation” is a euphemism for “Third World”.* Stand back and let them “evolve”; why should we violate the most foundational law of the Religion of Evolution: Survival of the Fittest / Natural Selection...? —which liberal socialist antichrists who claim to believe in evolution violate at every turn! (showing they don’t actually believe in evolution).

* —even as the modern term, “sociopath” was coined as a euphemism for “psychopaths” so that psychopaths (who have no conscience) would not have their feelings hurt; and to also false guilt trip society into thinking that society is to blame for the deviant, defective soul. Likewise, prisoners are now called “inmates”—what a happy euphemism: It sounds respectable, like sailor or a room mate at college or summer camp.]

Appendix B

I would rather have not used up several pages to list these entire chapters (Leviticus 26 and Deuteronomy 28), which can easily be found and read elsewhere. However, if I did not produce them here, many people may never read them; even those with good intentions. Time is of the essence. Life is so fast-paced and complicated, it is easy to neglect all the things that you intend to do. So I hope each reader will take the time to read—reflectively, the two following chapters. For many (if not most) it will be the first time. However, it should be a yearly occurrence to read through the entire Bible. All it takes is a few minutes in the morning. George Mueller read the Bible over 200 times in his lifetime... in addition to all of his other duties (if you don't know who he was, shame on you! See his Autobiography; it will be one of the most-incredible books you will ever read). Please read both full chapters (beginning on the next page), in their entirety, pensively. There are many things contained therein that should jump out and grab your attention.

“¹Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. ²But his delight is in the Law of the LORD; and in His Law doth he meditate day and night. ³And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” (Psalm 1)

“¹As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God. ²My soul thirsteth for God, for the Living God...” (Psalm 42)

“⁹Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to Thy Word. ¹⁰With my whole heart have I sought Thee: O let me not wander from Thy Commandments. ¹¹Thy Word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against Thee.” (Psalm 119)

“²³Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: ²⁴And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the Way Everlasting.” (Psalm 139)

[Is it any wonder that David was called “a man after the Lord's Own Heart”? How can you expect to be similarly as honorable without following in his footsteps? —footsteps ordained and commanded by God.]

Leviticus 26

¹Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

²Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

³If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

⁴Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

⁵And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

⁶And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

⁷And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

⁸And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

⁹For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

¹⁰And ye shall eat old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.

¹¹And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not abhor you.

¹²And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

¹³I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

¹⁴But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

¹⁵And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

¹⁶I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

¹⁷And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

¹⁸And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

¹⁹And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:

²⁰And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

²¹And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

²²I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate.

²³And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

²⁴Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

²⁵And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

²⁶*And* when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.

²⁷And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;

²⁸Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

²⁹And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.

³⁰And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall abhor you.

³¹And I will make your cities waste, and bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

³²And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

³³And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

³⁴Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

³⁵As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

³⁶And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

³⁷And they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

³⁸And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

³⁹And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

⁴⁰If they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

⁴¹And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

⁴²Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

⁴³The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

⁴⁴And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their God.

⁴⁵But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

⁴⁶These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Deuteronomy 28

¹And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

²And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

³Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

⁴Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

⁵Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

⁶Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

⁷The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

⁸The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy store-houses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

⁹The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

¹⁰And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee.

¹¹And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

¹²The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

¹³And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

¹⁴And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

¹⁵But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

¹⁶Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

¹⁷Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

¹⁸Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

¹⁹Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

²⁰The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

²¹The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

²²The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

²³And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

²⁴The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

²⁵The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

²⁶And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

²⁷The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

²⁸The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

²⁹And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

³⁰Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her:

thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

³¹Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

³²Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.

³³The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed away:

³⁴So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

³⁵The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

³⁶The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

³⁷And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

³⁸Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.

³⁹Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

⁴⁰Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

⁴¹Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

⁴²All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

⁴³The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

⁴⁴He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

⁴⁵Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

⁴⁶And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

⁴⁷Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

⁴⁸Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

⁴⁹The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

⁵⁰A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young:

⁵¹And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

⁵²And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

⁵³And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

⁵⁴*So that* the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

⁵⁵So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

⁵⁶The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

⁵⁷And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

⁵⁸If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD;

⁵⁹Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

⁶⁰Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

⁶¹Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

⁶²And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

⁶³And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

⁶⁴And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

⁶⁵And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

⁶⁶And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

⁶⁷In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

⁶⁸And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

While all of these prophecies were initially fulfilled before Israel was defeated and deported into captivity, history does repeat itself. God's Promises for Blessing and Cursing still hold true. There is no 'expiration date' on God's Word unless that prophecy was to have a singular fulfillment (as in the prophecies concerning the Messiah, God saying He would soon destroy the earth in a Flood in Noah's day, etc.). God still declares:

¹⁹I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you Life and Death, Blessing and Cursing: therefore choose Life, that both thou and thy seed may live: ²⁰That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey His Voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto Him: for He is thy Life, and the length of thy days." (Deuteronomy 30)

- Sacred Truth Expository Commentary series (Note: Reading, Uncovering the Mysteries... and Does God Repent? are essential to these titles as they lay foundational Doctrine and information without which the reader will be confused.) verse by verse expositions of these entire chapters:
- The Book of the Prophet Jonah, Balaicius, 634pp., pb., 32.00 + P&H. No commentator that I know of, understands the purpose and message of the Book of Jonah. This book is an amazing journey; a simple book misunderstood in regard to its general purpose and overall lesson; and many elements of the book are interpreted different by many. A very short book with remarkably very little detail, actually presents a larger-than-life story with amazing insight that no other commentator or theologian has ever uncovered; the illogic and outright heresy of many commentators and "experts" is scrutinized and refuted; this will burn up various sacred cows. I thought this commentary would only be about 150 pages... but I seem to have "hooked a big one" and it ran with me and I was just along for the ride until it was exhausted.

Was Rahab a "Canaanite"...? and Was Rahab the Rachab in Christ's Genealogy? - The Promises and Covenants Stand...! - detailed account of Jericho; intro. on author of Epistle of James; discussion of the apostles, 49 illustrations, numerous original charts; genealogy of Christ & disciples (Christ's 1st & 2nd cousins); names of disciples, sealing of 12 tribes, gates of new Jerusalem, time-line from Jericho to building of Solomon's Temple; & more. 522pp., pb., 25⁰⁰ + P&H.
 - Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans, 758pp., pb., Possibly the only correct commentary since Paul wrote his epistle... chapter by chapter, verse by verse... shows the "Gentiles" and "Greeks were the Israelites of the dispersion, identifies all the Old Testament quotations and allusions made by Paul, shows that Paul in no way suggested that the law was abolished, or changed, or that it was "optional"; lays bare the error of anti-Paulines and defends Paul's identity and office. Shows the correct method of Biblical interpretation will prevent/dispell all false interpretations and false doctrine, also shows how many people, for some reason, read truth backwards and confuse themselves, and also misunderstand things because they focus on a minor point of a passage, rather than the major point; and often like a deer in headlights, focus on what they do not understand instead of focusing on what they do understand while meditating until God gives greater light on what they don't understand. Ties in a plethora of Old and New Testament Scripture. One of my most important works. 40.00 + P&H.

 - Ten Commandments For Youth —For Everyone! For Youth and Young-minded* Adults - An Explanation of the Ten Commandments and A Memory System using Bible Numerics; c.440pp., 6.25 x 9.25, pb., 25.00 + P&H; not on a child's level, but for older youth and adults — [* young minded, of course, refers to the opposite of "you can't teach an old dog a new trick" and also Christ taught that if one wanted to see/enter the Kingdom he had to become as a little child, that is child-like faith and obedience.] My exposition on the 10 commandments, shows that the 10 commandments are not 10 individual laws, but 10 categories of law under which the entire law of God is organized. I also show that Christ's "turn the other cheek" was not a general, broad based, universal statement, but only referred to accepting just punishment in court if one had truly sinned and damaged kinsman and thus to accept the punishment gracefully, showing your true remorse for having damaged a brother. But modern christianity has perverted this Sermon on the mount teaching to mean we should just bend over and accept abuse and lie down and die. Christ taught Occupy till I come, and Paul wrote, have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but REBUKE them... this is not consonant with "turning the other cheek" to God's enemies, the enemies of Christendom, immoral people, criminals, etc., which is not what Christ was teaching.

 - Thinking Black: 22 Years Without a Break in the Long Grass of Central Africa (1913) [reprinted by Negro Universities Press, NY, in 1969] Daniel Crawford (1870-1926) a.k.a. "Konga Vantu", Scottish Plymouth Brethren missionary in central-southern Africa, I began reading this to see if it was worthwhile, as someone had told me about it. I find it interesting, intriguing, enlightening, thought-provoking, entertaining, humorous, profound... to me, the book has a very odd tone of thought; if I can put my finger on it, I believe it seems as if he merely describes things and does not explain them; there is no explaining random chaos, there is only describing it... and that is all he can do with the topic at hand... he was a missionary, but one with honest insight into the mind of those primitives he was around... the book seems to begin with no purpose, no explanation, you just awake and find yourself in his safari trekking through the hot and humid bush... with his unique manners of description and humor and blunt insight. In the beginning he mentions the Portuguese he encountered in Mozambique at the first area from which he embarked and noted how indolent the Portuguese were, and expressed that it was believed that they would not drink coffee for breakfast under the assumption it might keep them up the rest of the day. 504pp. + 20pp. photos, pb., 28.00 + P&H. - The Frontiersman (conquest of America's NW Territory; today's northern mid-west) Narratives of America Series by Allan Eckert; gripping historical novels based wholly on fact; depict how life really was, extol some great Americans usually overlooked in history. (6 books in the series; inquire); this one covers the wars against British & Indians, centered around Simon Kenton; greatest frontiersman/pioneer greater than Daniel Boone (saved Boone's life few times) great man, God watched over him even as Washington in battle. Little taught nowadays, incredible man - a true legend. One of only 2 men who could fire and reload and fire musket while running full speed. I highly recommend this book. One of best I have ever read. One of only men in history to have survived any (let alone numerous times the) running of Indian gauntlet; British/French treachery, frontier-life, Indian Wars, American independence; 626pp., large-size pb., pb., 19th; incredible! A must!

- The Original Life and Adventures of Tom Quick, The Indian Slayer, as Published at Monticello in 1851: And the Pioneers of Minisink and Wawarsink (1894 ed.) James E. Quinlan & T. G. Cutler, 123pp., pb., rare, 12.50 + P&H; true story of son avenging death of father during French & Indian Wars, devoted life to exterminating few remaining Indians in N.E. Pennsylvania. Settling in Milford, Pennsylvania, the family enjoyed peaceful relationship w/ Indians. At outbreak of French & Indian Wars, relationship w/ small group of settlers became strained & dispute about land known as Minisink. Quick's father was killed & scalped during sudden attack, which led Quick to long, vengeful campaign to kill as many Indians as he could. In fact, he killed nearly 100 over many years, eventually died of old age. When book was written, he was one of great icons of American folklore & exploits were common fare of fireside storytellers & cracker-barrel old-timers. Today, he is virtually forgotten. Political correctness recently motivated his hometown of Milford, PA to dismantle handsome monument over his remains & replace it with apologetic plaque. References to him have been eliminated from local history. This is the original biography of Tom Quick, published in 1851; containing virtually every tale associated with craft & cunning of Tom Quick, & many narratives relating to early settlers of the upper Delaware Valley. Of special interest to historians are the chapters devoted to the Battle of Minisink during American Revolution; abridged version, published 1894, lacks several key chapters, footnotes & Appendix.
