- Just One More Chance, Lorne J. Shields / Robert Alan Balaicius, 564pp., pb., 25.00 + P&H. The story begins in Ireland and progresses like a whirlwind, which, to explain more would give away the suspense of the story. A gripping read you will not be able to put down and one of those rare books that you wish would never end. · One rash decision, a regrettable mistake, can snowball and cause a chain-reaction like an avalanche; so-far reaching one may wonder if it can be outrun even if he flees to the other side of the world. When such a brief mistake is made, as Tom McCauley finds out, it can carry you about like a beach-ball in the ocean, and all you can do is hang on for dear life and pray to God that you land safely, somewhere, eventually. · Here begins a touching story of down-to-earth people (well... most of them) often real life stories from an earlier era. A story of love and romance interwoven with cultures spanning several nations of a bye-gone era, hard work, drama, intrigue, foul-play, good versus evil, faithfulness, respect, devotion, desperation, and hope combined with real historical events. The epic story of all creation is presented in a whirl: a momentary fall from grace followed by repeated attempts at restoration, while battling a myriad of unforeseen obstacles to that goal which creep out of the past into the present like vipers from a pit that just won't die. You will not be the same after reading this book; you may become a part of the drama itself: your heart knit with those of this story, as if they were family or dear friends. At least, that is how it affected me. Step back into the 1800s and enjoy an amazing story. . . . I cannot help but think of a paragraph penned by the eminent Charles Dickens, which shares similar sentiments with this moving, gripping, lively, fascinating story: "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to heaven, we were all going direct the other way — in short, the period was so far like the present period, that some of its noisiest authorities insisted on its being received, for good or for evil, in the superlative degree of comparison only." (A Tale of Two Cities) —Editor, Adapter, Publisher, R.A.B. must read. could be next Hallmark movie / miniseries

  - Ten Commandments For Youth —For Everyone! For Youth and Young-minded* Adults - An Explanation of the Ten Commandments and A Memory System using Bible Numerics; c.440pp., 6.25 x 9.25, pb., 25.00 + P&H; not on a child's level, but for older youth and adults [* young minded, refers to opposite of "you can't teach old dog new trick" and Christ taught if one wanted to see/enter the Kingdom he had to become as a little child, child-like faith / obedience.] shows that 10 Commandments not 10 individual laws, but 10 Categories of Law under which entire Law of God is organized; I show how other laws are so categorized & show how breaking any one is tantamount to breaking all; and that all 10 categories if violated are sins against God and all 10 categories if violated are sins against our kinsmen. Very detailed, enlightening, instructional; profound new thought and clear teaching that will be hard for antinomians to refute, if they will read. Also a detailed exposition of Matthew 5:38-40 concerning loving our "enemies", "turning the other cheek", "giving thy coat and cloak", etc. These were not general, broad-based, universal statements, but only referred to accepting just punishment in court if one had truly sinned and damaged a kinsman and thus to accept the punishment gracefully, showing your true remorse for having damaged a brother; and "going the extra mile" likewise had specific (not universal) application; but modern "Christianity" has perverted this Sermon on the Mount teaching to mean we should just bend over and accept abuse and lie down and die. Christ taught Occupy till I come (not surrender or blend in with the world), and Paul wrote, have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but REBUKE them... this is not consonant with "turning the other cheek" to GOD'S enemies, the enemies of Christendom: immoral people, aliens, perverts, criminals, antichrists, etc., which is not what Christ was teaching.]

Titles by Dr. Gordon H(addon). Clark

Gordon Clark (1902-1985) greatest philosopher & theologian of our era; yet relatively unknown; his works indispensable to Christian faith; philosopher whose powers of logic were without equal; able writer, brief, to the point, but hands-down convincing, arguments being irrefutable; exposes logical blunders of philosophers and theologians of all eras. His mastery of theology, philosophy, language, history, political science is amazing, awe-inspiring. No Christian should be unfamiliar with his works. inquire for complete list; the below are best for starters. Most Christians cannot think logically and therefore, their notions of what Scripture teaches are without foundation. Without truly knowing what one believes, one has little true faith; only an emotional experience; shows that most modern Christian churches, are not Christian at all. As I have expressed, if one has not read Gordon Clark, it is not too extreme to say he has possibly never truly thought; or, at least, he has not thought truly. Please consider these below titles... I cannot stress this enough. (# indicates recommended order in which to read them) Email for complete list of all his works.

In this work he utterly demolishes the false philosophies upon which all political science has been based (from Aristotle, Rousseau, Spengler) and shows how their models are antichristian, socialist, and bound only to fail.

(14) Christian Philosophy (containing 3 separate works, Religion, Reason, and Revelation; Three Types of Religious Philosophy; & Introduction to Christian Philosophy) 377pp., 10.25 x 7.25, pb., 18.00 (reg. 22.00); Hb., 25.00 (reg. 30.00) + P&H.

- (7) A Christian Philosophy of Education, 175pp., 10.25 x 7.25, pb., 13.00; Hb., 17.00 (reg. 19.00) + P&H. Written in 1946 with great foresight even then promoted educating children in Christian schools or at home; a landmark work written by a Christian educator who taught for 60 years; he later updated and expanded this edition in the early 1980s.

- Gordon H. Clark: Personal Recollections, Robbins, 150pp., 11.00 + P&H.
- (10) Historiography: Secular and Religious, 366pp., pb., 14.00 + P&H. Good complement to "A Christian View of Men and Things" in Modern Philosophy, but it is more advanced reading.
- (7) The Holy Spirit, 129pp., 9.00 + P&H - consummate scholar, admirable defender of faith, bold, pithy, dry wit. To me this seems to be less a book about the Holy Spirit than it is a critique of errors in books by others on the Holy Spirit (and in most cases, he is probably right & insight illuminating / important). [However, after Clark's book, I recommend Arthur Pink's; keeping in mind truth learned from Clark.] Clark's successor, Robbins, in an Appendix, gives a masterful overview of how Wesley/Finney's Armenianism which also influenced the Pentecostal and Holiness Movements served to pave the way back to Catholic doctrine. Clark's treatment of Pentecostalism and Robbins Appendix are worth the price of the book.
- (4) The Incarnation, 91pp., pb., 9.00 + P&H.

- Language and Theology, 175pp., 12.00 + P&H.
- (16) Logic, 140pp., Hb., 17.00 + P&H. This will prob. be difficult for most people to understand. However, even if you can only read first 40 / 50pp. it will be of help. Reading his other books will be a lesson in logic itself; though you won't be able to grasp everything in first reading of his books, absorb what you can & use a dictionary or google words and phrases that you don't understand; and write them down on a 3x5 card for future reference.

- (2) What is the Christian Life?, 342pp., pb., 13.00 (this new printing combines his Sanctification [a good follow-up book to The Atonement, showing beyond salvation what realities of the Christian faith are] and Today's Evangelism: Counterfeit or Genuine?)
- (11) What Is Saving Faith, 179pp., (combines Faith and Saving Faith & Johannine Logos, which contains great insight but can be a little tedious as he makes his case; but if you persevere, there are some great jewels in it.) 13.00 + P&H.
