gripping read you will not be able to put down and one of those rare books that you wish would never end. · One rash decision, a regrettable mistake, can snowball and cause a chain-reaction like an avalanche; so-far reaching one may wonder if it can be outrun even if he flees to the other side of the world. When such a brief mistake is made, as Tom McCauley finds out, it can carry you about like a beach-ball in the ocean, and all you can do is hang on for dear life and pray to God that you land safely, somewhere, eventually. · Here begins a touching story of down-to-earth people (well... most of them) often real life stories from an earlier era. A story of love and romance interwoven with cultures spanning several nations of a bye-gone era, hard work, drama, intrigue, foul-play, good versus evil, faithfulness, respect, devotion, desperation, and hope combined with real historical events. The epic story of all creation is presented in a whirl: a momentary fall from grace followed by repeated attempts at restoration, while battling a myriad of unforeseen obstacles to that goal which creep out of the past into the present like vipers from a pit that just won't die. You will not be the same after reading this book; you may become a part of the drama itself: your heart knit with those of this story, as if they were family or dear friends. At least, that is how it affected me. Step back into the 1800s and enjoy an amazing story. . . · I cannot help but think of a paragraph penned by the eminent Charles Dickens, which shares similar sentiments with this moving, gripping, lively, fascinating story: "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to heaven, we were all going direct the other way — in short, the period was so far like the present period, that some of its noisiest authorities insisted on its being received, for good or for evil, in the superlative degree of comparison only." (A Tale of Two Cities) —Editor, Adapter, Publisher, R.A.B. must read. could be next Hallmark movie / miniseries

- Rebutting a Limp 'Refutation'; Christian Anglo-Israel Defended; "Heresies Exposed" —Exposed as Impotent Hear-say, 88pp., 6.00 + P&H. This begins with a 10-page "expose" from a book I reprinted by a mainstream author, "Heresies Exposed" (the entire book deals with many false doctrines, and the author included a 10-page chapter on "British Israel", though he proved himself ignorant, dishonest, and inadequate) and ends with my 72-page rebuttal.
- Rivers of Living Water (1930) with complementary and corrective notes by Robert Alan Balaicius; Paxson's work was a pocket-sized pb., 128pp. (with airy columns and wide margins), expanded to 6x9 paperback. This was a remarkably well-written little booklet with more truth than error, though she did not go into great depth in her explanations, I make up for that and also make doctrinal corrections (my notes are not as airy and fill the page to normal margins, and prob. constitute 3/4 of the book); total 262pp., 6x9, pb., 18.00 + P&H.

Sacred Truth Expository Commentary series (Note: Reading, Uncovering the Mysteries... and Does God Repent? are essential to these titles as they lay foundational Doctrine and information without which the reader will be confused.) verse by verse expositions of these entire chapters / books:
- The Book of the Prophet Jonah, Balaicius, 634pp., pb., 32.00 + P&H. No commentator that I know of, understands purpose and message of Book of Jonah. an amazing journey; a simple book misunderstood in regard to its general purpose / overall lesson; & many elements of Jonah are interpreted different by many. very short book with remarkably very little detail, actually presents larger-than-life story w/ amazing insight that no other commentator or theologian has ever uncovered; the illogic and outright heresy of many commentators and "experts" is scrutinized and refuted; this will burn up various sacred cows.
only because of God’s Promises, but because of God’s very nature. What makes a Christian a Christian? What makes God God? Proof that Peter’s Vision (and all other N.T. passages the average person things “did away with” the dietary laws) did not abolish God’s Dietary Laws in slightest. 76pp., 50 + P&H.

- Ten Commandments For You® — For Everyone! For Youth and Young-minded* Adults - An Explanation of the Ten Commandments and A Memory System using Bible Numerics: c.440pp., 6.25 x 9.25, pb., 25.00 + P&H; not on a child’s level, but for older youth and adults [* young minded, refers to opposite of “you can’t teach old dog new trick” and Christ taught if one wanted to see/enter the Kingdom he had to become as a little child, child-like faith / obedience.] shows that 10 Commandments not 10 individual laws, but 10 Categories of Law under which entire Law of God is organized; I show how other laws are so categorized & show how breaking any one is tantamount to breaking all; and that all 10 categories if violated are sins against God and all 10 categories if violated are sins against our kinsmen. Very detailed, enlightening, instructional; profound new thought and clear teaching that will be hard for antinomians to refute, if they will read. Also a detailed exposition of Matthew 5:38-40 concerning loving our “enemies”, “turning the other cheek”, “giving thy coat and cloak”, etc. These were not general, broad-based, universal statements, but only referred to accepting just punishment in court if one had truly sinned and damaged a kinsman and thus to accept the punishment gratefully, showing your true remorse for having damaged a brother; and “going the extra mile” likewise had specific (not universal) application; but modern “Christianity” has perverted this Sermon on the Mount teaching to mean we should just bend over and accept abuse and lie down and die. Christ taught Occupy till I come (not surrender or blend in with the world), and Paul wrote, have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness but REBUKE them... this is not consonant with “turning the other cheek” to GOD’S enemies, the enemies of Christendom: immoral people, aliens, perverts, criminals, antichrists, etc., which is not what Christ was teaching.]

- Uncovering the Mysteries of Your Hidden Inheritance, 6x9, 192pp.; Illustrated; pb., 16 00 + P&H; Hb., 26 00 + P&H. This is the foundational book upon which most of my other 100+ books are built. Bible history and prophecy are real; not mythology or fable; without understanding who you are / God’s Plan, there is no way you can know what God requires or how you are supposed to fit in that plan. This holds the key that unlocks truth of the Scriptures—& history. Translated into Danish & Afrikaans. This is the one to start with; will explain Scriptures/history/prophecy.

Titles by Dr. Gordon H. Clark

Gordon Clark was the greatest philosopher and theologian of our era; yet he is relatively unknown. His works are indispensable to the Christian faith; a philosopher whose powers of logic were without equal; an able writer who is brief, to the point, but hands-down convincing, his arguments being irrefutable; he exposes logical blunders of philosophers and theologians of all eras. His mastery of theology, philosophy, language, history, and political science is amazing, awe-inspiring. No Christian should be unfamiliar with his works. I can provide a complete list of all his works, all of which I stock; but the below are best for starters. Most Christians cannot think logically and therefore, their notions of what Scripture teaches are without foundation. Without truly knowing what one believes, one has little true faith; only an emotional experience; shows that most modern Christian churches, are not Christian at all. As I have expressed, if one has not read Gordon Clark, it is not too extreme to say he has possibly never truly thought; or, at least, he has not thought truly. Please consider these below titles... I cannot stress this enough. (# indicates recommended order in which to read them) Email for complete list of all his works.

For the King: The Trinity Review, 1999-2008, 624pp., Hb., 35.00 + P&H (reg. 40).
Ancient Philosophy. 500pp., 22.00 + P&H (reg. 25).
(1) The Atonement, 163pp., pb., 11.00 + P&H. A MUST.
(9) The Biblical Doctrine of Man, 127pp., pb., 10.00 + P&H.
(3) A Christian View of Men and Things, 251pp., 10.25 x 7.25, pb., 18.00 (reg. 22.00); Hb., 25.00 (reg. 30.00) + P&H. In this work he utterly demolishes the false philosophies upon which all political science has been based (from Aristotle, Rousseau, Spengler) and shows how their models are antichristian, socialist, and bound only to fail.
(14) Christian Philosophy (containing his 3 previously separate works, Religion, Reason, and Revelation: Three Types of Religious Philosophy; and An Introduction to Christian Philosophy) 377pp., 10.25 x 7.25, pb., 18.00 (reg. 22.00); Hb., 25.00 (reg. 30.00) + P&H.
(15) A Christian Philosophy of Education, 175pp., 10.25 x 7.25, pb., 13.00; Hb., 17.00 (reg. 19.00) + P&H. Written in 1946 with great foresight even then promoted educating children in Christian schools or at home; a landmark work written by a Christian educator who taught for 60 years.
Clark Speaks from the Grave, 77pp., 5.00 + P&H.
The Clark-Van Till Controversy, Hockema, 111pp., 10.00 + P&H.

(7) First Corinthians, 349pp., 16.00 + P&H.
(9) First John, pb., 11.00 + P&H.
God and Evil: The Problem Solved, 60pp., large pb., (6.00 + P&H.
(3) God’s Hammer: The Bible and Its Critics, 215pp., pb., 15.00 + P&H. Every Christian needs to read this one, and his Atonement and What is the Christian Life?
Gordon H. Clark: Personal Recollections, Robbins, 150pp., 11.00 + P&H.
(10) Historiography: Secular and Religious, 366pp., pb., 14.00 + P&H. Good complement to "A Christian View of Men and Things" in Modern Philosophy, but it is more advanced reading.
(7) The Holy Spirit, 129pp., 9.00 + P&H - consummate scholar, admirable defender of faith, bold, pithy, dry wit. To me this seems to be less a book about the Holy Spirit than it is a critique of errors in books by others on the Holy Spirit (and in most cases, he is probably right & insight illuminating / important). [However, after Clark's book, I recommend Arthur Pink's; keeping in mind truth learned from Clark.] Clark's successor, Robbins, in an Appendix, gives a masterful overview of how Wesley/Finney's Armenianism which also influenced the Pentecostal and Holiness Movements served to pave the way back to Catholic doctrine. Clark's treatment of Pentecostalism and Robbins Appendix are worth the price of the book.
(4) The Incarnation, 91pp., pb., 9.00 + P&H.
Introduction to Christian Philosophy, 151pp., 10.00 + P&H.
(12) In Defense of Theology, Hb., 119pp., 20.00 + P&H.; large pb., 66pp., 10.00 + P&H.
Karl Barth's Theological Method, 320pp., 19.00 + P&H.
Language and Theology, 175pp., 12.00 + P&H.
(16) Logic, 140pp., Hb., 17.00 + P&H. This will prob. be difficult for most people to understand. However, even if you can only read first 40 / 50pp. it will be of help. Reading his other books will be a lesson in logic itself; though you won't be able to grasp everything in first reading of his books, absorb what you can & use a dictionary or google words and phrases that you don't understand; and write them down on a 3x5 card for future reference.
(7) Logical Criticisms of Textual Criticism, 60pp., 5.00 + P&H.
Lord God of Truth & Concerning the Teacher, 120pp., 10.00 + P&H.
(8) Modern Philosophy (combines 3 of Clark's books formerly printed separately: The Philosophy of Science and Belief in God (excellent, mind-liberating) Most science is based on false assumptions and little can be proven that gives incredible insight into language and knowledge in general; 450pp., pb., 10.25 x 7.25, 18.00 (reg. 22.00) + P&H; Hb., 25.00 (reg. 30.00) + P&H.
(7) New Heavens, New Earth (I and II Peter), 250pp., 13.00 + P&H.
(7) Pastoral Epistles, 233pp. pb., 20.00 + P&H (reg 22); Hb., 26.00 + P&H (reg 30).
(7) Philippians, 137pp., 10.00 + P&H.
(8) Predestination, 176pp., pb., 13.00 + P&H.
