

Of Floods and Famines and Flimsy Arguments

“¹⁵And the Serpent cast out of his mouth water as a Flood [the Third World] after the Woman [God’s true people, the true peoples of Christendom, now under genocidal amalgamation], that he might cause her to be carried away of the Flood.
¹⁷And the Dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make War with the Remnant of her seed, which keep the Commandments of God, and have the Testimony of Christ Jesus.” (Revelation 12)

A picture’s worth 1,000 words... What a shipload...!

What would be the fate of you and your boat if this boat met you alone at sea?

[Nigerian, Somali, and Moroccan pirates—people just like those on this ship, were attacking and stealing cargo and cruise ships, and killing people, just because they could (even as they have done for millennia).]

If you or I tried to leave or enter our own nation without “permission”... what would be our fate?

If you or I took out a boatload of friends like this for an afternoon cruise... what would be our fate? Would not the Coast Guard and a whole team of protologists inspect every last crevice?

If you or I had this many people on a boat, exceeding the “lawful limit” of the number of people that “are allowed to be” on a boat, if each did not have an “approved” life preserver, if someone had a can of beer, if the boat was not properly registered, did not have the appropriate insurance, if someone threw a piece of litter overboard, were pooping and peeing over the side, didn’t have a permit to transport people, etc. ... what would be our fate?

Why are criminal alien savages able to violate our laws, laws that would land us in jail if we “violated” them? Why are we forced to pay for a “better” life for them? —a life to which they are not accustomed (and how can you “miss” what you do not know...?), a life that they do not deserve; a life comprised of that which they will continue to demand more and more, and accuse us of “racism” and “white privilege” if they don’t get everything that they demand (including “new” everything, after they destroyed the former “new” everything that they were given)...? Our politicians are the main problem. They have forgotten that they are our servants, not our masters. They have forgotten that this is our nation, not the nation of the entire world. They have forgotten that the penalty for High Treason is death.

Aliens can commit the crime of illegally entering our nation, and commit crimes and violations on the way in... and those crimes are ignored... what, then, is to keep them from committing crimes once in our nation? and since their previous crimes were ignored, what incentive do they have not to commit other crimes? In their nation the law of the jungle prevails. They are unfit for civilization. They are coming with nothing and intend to take whatever they want from others.

Boats like this should be turned around and sent back whence they came—and each U.S. politician who thinks that is wrong should be placed on these boats with the aliens back to the Third World, and see if the savages want to elect those politicians as their leaders to fix all their problems. Any “American” citizens who think that it is wrong to send these boats back—they should be sent back with them! They don’t understand responsibility, civilization, or freedom, therefore, they don’t deserve it. If they want socialism, let them move to an existing socialist nation. To attempt to alter our nation is High Treason, Subversion, Sedition, and the attempted overthrow of the true Government of the United States: the lawful people and the U.S. Constitution as written and intended by OUR [not “their”] Founders. Let these liberals and snowflakes who think it is wrong to send invaders back whence they came show us their “liberal humanitarianism” by volunteering (or being deported with them, against their will, kicking and screaming) to go back to the Third World and give their whole life (yes, give up their designer coffees, manicures, cell phones, champaign brunches, designer clothes, air conditioning, running water, internet, vacation houses, etc.) to help these “unfortunates”.

People need to stop believing the delusional fairy-tale myth that every last creature in the world can be helped, that it is our duty, and that it is someone else’s job to pay for it. Those who violate natural law and common sense should suffer the consequences of stupidity and immorality, for violating common sense due to their communist utopia psychosis.

One person in the comments section at the site of a video* showing the monumental problem of world poverty and one-way immigration made the mindless comment: “God made us all.”

[* Way Out of the Migration Disaster:

Lady Michèle Renouf explains Dr. Kümel’s Modified Sachs Plan - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3FHT1ZcHjBY>

This video has some good info, and presents truth with error; and presents a godless Statism (dictatorships are “wonderful” if you have a benevolent dictator; but what is history’s “track record” in that department?) Lady Renouf, sadly, is deceived into rejecting what she terms as “the three religions of Abraham”—not realizing the difference between legitimate heirs and imposters; not recognizing the difference between authentic works of art and money, and forges and counterfeits. Because of this, she presents an anti-intellectual humanism (presumably based upon evolution), which is caused by the monumental logical error that if problems exist anywhere in the world (including nations that did not have such problems under benevolent Colonialism, and which nations demanded their “independence” from Christian nations), that for some reason it is our “duty” to solve their problems.]

That God made us all is irrelevant to the topic; and it is confusion on many levels. If you are going to bring God into the argument, do it logically and according to the declarations in His Word; not your own emotional subjective fantasies. Not all are His people. His Plan for all is not the same. God made sheep, camels, and crocodiles, grass, vegetables, and fruit trees too. That likewise, is irrelevant to the topic at hand. Violating the boundaries that He established is what causes all problems. Exactly to WHICH “God” do you refer...? The only true God and His self-revelations in the Bible? —or merely a subjective mythological superstition and spiritism invented in the mind of each individual?

Irresponsible breeding is one of the main problems. It is immoral and irrational and anti-intellectual that merely because a person can outbreed you, that you are then obligated to support his massive family (generation after generation) by limiting your own family and by limiting the possessions that you own; which is essentially slavery (I thought that was “evil” and was abolished), forcing YOU to work (while they do not) and then for YOU to give them the fruit of your labor so that they can consume it—and eventually replace you and your family and your people entirely; and who, then, will provide that standard of living for them? Will they not revert once again to poverty and barbarism? This is the parasitic model and its end result is the destruction of civilization; and is illustrated in ancient temples in the jungles that fell into decay, were overgrown with foliage, and are now inhabited by bats, snakes, rats, insects, scorpions, and other vermin. People who don’t like the fact that reality does not paint a pretty picture, prefer to daydream fantasies—and then force other people to enter their psychosis with them.

God set the bounds of the nations. God established all boundaries, including moral boundaries, and crossing any of those boundaries is rebellion against God. God established laws and principles for every area of life. The majority violate those laws and principles, thinking that they know better; and that is the epicenter and pathology of all woes on earth.

Furthermore, not all “problems” are intended to be solved—but to be avoided. Would you not agree that the “food chain” among the “Animal Kingdom” is a “problem”...? Do you think that it can be “solved”...? Will you be the one to stand in between the pack of hyenas and the surrounded, outnumbered antelope? If that is your wish, that is your decision and your decision alone (and good luck with that), but you have NO moral or Biblical grounds (which are one and the same thing) to demand that others stand in that place instead of you, or with you; or that they spend their money to help “solve” it.

[Watch the movie, The gods Must be Crazy [<https://youtu.be/lagNMvcCq4c>] before you try to spoil the “Noble Savages” with civilization. Their lives are happier without all the things most fools in civilization think are so important. Do you think their lives would be improved with television (Oprah, game shows, senseless sitcoms, cartoons), slasher movies, Drag Queen Story Hour, and comic books, rap “music”, cell phones, designer shoes and purses, sex change operations, naked gay parades, vaxes and vax passes, battleships and greater corrupt bureaucracies? If they would not want the refuse from their nations that neighbor them, why should they expect us to take them?]

Q. Why do Evolutionists violate their own foundational tenet: Survival of the Fittest / Natural Selection ...?

A. Because they are hypocritical liars and all that they do serves one purpose: to destroy Christendom.

As the old sayings go:

“Socialism only exists for as long as there is someone left to rob.”

“You can vote your way into Socialism—but you have to shoot your way out!” —which is a bit difficult if you have been disarmed and if the ones who disarmed you also swamped your nations with savages who outnumber you.

Life is a “human right”, indeed. If you have not damaged someone else, no one has the right to take your life. However, a Standard of Living, a “good” life, health, and health insurance are NOT “rights”, but privileges that a person earns for himself, and are blessings from God based upon the Law of the Harvest and other factors of His Deterministic Decrees. No one has the right to YOUR life. “Equality” is a myth. It cannot be legislated any more than waved with a magic wand. You reap what you sow. If you are unable to sow anything worthwhile, stop reproducing and expecting someone else to pay for it all.
