

What should be a modern Ancestry.com commercial:

1800s:

“Wow, this is the boat our grandparents came over on, to the U.S. from Ireland...!”

2000s :

“Wow, this is the sewer our parents crawled through to illegally enter the U.S. through L.A. from Mexico...!”

“Wow, this is the section of the U.S. Border Fence that our parents dug under, squeezed through, or pushed their way border guards to illegally enter the U.S., after paying coyotes $5,000 to smuggle our parents from Guatemala to the border; but they recovered that money quickly by applying for welfare benefits.

But because they have “children” and want a better life (YOURS!) that makes it right. They want “equality” given to them, instead of building it.

Because someone else wants what you and your ancestors sacrificed to build, they have the right to take it from you.
