Exposes the anti-intellectual, irrational mindlessness of atheists, agnostics, those who believe in pagan mythology, who believe in, worship, and pray to “the universe”, evolutionists, and the vast majority of “Christians” (especially “non-doctrinal Christians”), who are actually humanists, whose “faith” is closer to Hinduism (in that man believes God to be after man’s own imagination, not based upon what God Himself says).

- The Testimony of the Evangelists: Examined by the Rules of Evidence Administered in Courts of Justice — with an Appendix Containing A History of the Most Ancient Manuscript Copies of the New Testament, and Comparison of Their Text with That of the King James Bible by Contantine Tischendorff — and also A Review of the Trial of Jesus (1874) Simon Greenleaf (Founding Professor of Law, Harvard University, who wrote the Law on Evidence), (with photo. of Greenleaf and Tischendorff added by the Modern Publisher) - the original work was over 614 pages long. I have extracted several portions, most apropos, and left out about 500 pages of Greenleaf's Harmony of the Gospels and the portion of Notes on the Gospels from his Appendix; I have enlarged the text 12%; c.154pp., 6x9 pb., 17.50 + P&H. Greenleaf, a Jew, was challenged by one of his students to apply his own Rules of Evidence to the Gospels; Greenleaf did so and was "converted" as a result of his findings, determining the Gospel accounts to be true. NOT YET PRINTED

Concerning Greenleaf's book, Treatise on the Law of Evidence, the London Law Magazine wrote:

"It is no mean honor to America that her schools of jurisprudence have produced two of the first writers and best esteemed legal authorities of this century—the great and good man, Judge [Joseph] Story, and his worthy and eminent associate, Professor [Simon] Greenleaf. Upon the existing Law of Evidence [by Greenleaf], more light has shown from the New World than from all the lawyers who adorn the courts of Europe."

also:

"This [Greenleaf's Testimony of the Evangelists] is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, work on Christian Apologetics ever written. It ends all discussion of the genuineness and authenticity of the Books of the Bible. It should be placed in the hands of every lawyer and minister in the land. We will publish in The Bible Champion, the plea of this great jurist. This will place in the hands of every reader, in compact form, an irrefutable argument with which to meet all assaults upon the Scriptures. We especially solicit every reader to show to the lawyers of their acquaintance this page and solicit their subscription." The Bible Champion (February 1914)

"It [Greenleaf's Testimony of the Evangelists] is the production of an able and profound lawyer, a man who has grown grey in the halls of justice and the schools of jurisprudence; a writer of the highest authority on legal subjects, whose life has been spent in weighing testimony and sifting evidence, and whose published opinions on the rules of evidence are received as authoritative in all the English and American tribunals; for fourteen years the highly respected colleague of the late Mr. Justice [Joseph] Story, and also the honored head of the most distinguished and prosperous school of English law in the world." —North American Review

For 22 years Donald Day (1895-1966) was the only American journalist stationed in Europe north of Berlin. From Poland, Finland, Latvia, Sweden and elsewhere in northern and central Europe, he covered events as correspondent for the Chicago Tribune. Convinced that Third Reich Germany was Europe's only bulwark against Soviet tyranny. He, of course, is denounced and defamed nowadays as a raging "anti-semite". Is it the reporter's fault that the guilty individuals beyond communism are Jews? That's like blaming the weather reporter for reporting on the devastation of a tornado, as if being "anti-tornado" was all that mattered, and that the victims that lay strewn in its wake are of no importance.

The mainstream press gave very favorable reviews of his works. Here are two:

“Colonel Garnier has given us another of that remarkable series of pamphlets [books] of which he is the author, in which he brings forward some really extraordinary facts in support of the Israelitish origin of the British race. It is worth the study of all who believe in the accuracy of Biblical statements, and to many, the author’s research and ingenious, yet convincing deductions from the words of Holy Writ will be something of a revelation.” --United Service Magazine

“He states the arguments, Scriptural and historical, which weigh in favour of the Israelitish origin of the British race, rejecting doubtful statements and theories and presenting the case with a point and skill that merits the serious attention of all impartial people. The author treats his subject in a scholarly manner, and readers, whether they dissent or agree, will admit that he has put the whole question on a higher plane than it has hitherto generally occupied.” --Aberdeen Free Press]

The last book written and self-published by the lifelong white preservationist and one of the twentieth century's most dedicated advocates for black repatriation. In Black Belt Around the World at the High Noon of Colonialism, Cox provides a history of his family, his early life, and the circumstances preceding his world travels. Inspired by Dr. Frederick Starr's journey through the Belgian Congo (Starr was Cox's professor at the Univ. of Chicago), Cox decided to make "a first hand study of the Negro under other governments" (p. 61), which eventually took him all over Africa, New Zealand, Australia, East Asia, and South American. As summarized by scholar Jason Ward, in Black Belt, Cox "described the encounters that had inspired his crusade for racial separation. He remembered his admiration for the racial pride of German colonists, his horror at reports of blacks raping white women in South Africa" (Ward, "A Richmond Institution': Earnest Sevier Cox...", p. 284). Cox returned to the U.S. in 1915 a committed nationalist and spent the rest of his life promoting white preservationism and working alongside black nationalists, such as Marcus Garvey, who also wanted to repatriate American blacks back to Africa.

If nonwhites champion their own race / nation, it is "pride" and "Anti-colonialism", if white people do, it is "racism" and "white supremacy". There are 195 nations in the world, barely 58 are (allegedly) white "majority"; all the rest are nonwhite; none are all or predominately white; immigration of the third world is into Christendom, which is destroying our nations, and enabling them to replace us; yet we are called the "haters" and "racists" simply for wanting what is ours, what our ancestors built.
